A PLACE, A CONCEPT AND NOW "RETURN OF THE SPONGE JUGGLERS"

ISSUE No. 11 - DIP SZINE OF THE 84 OLYMPICS

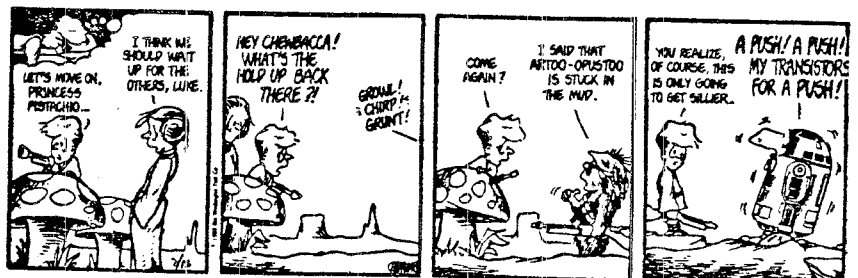

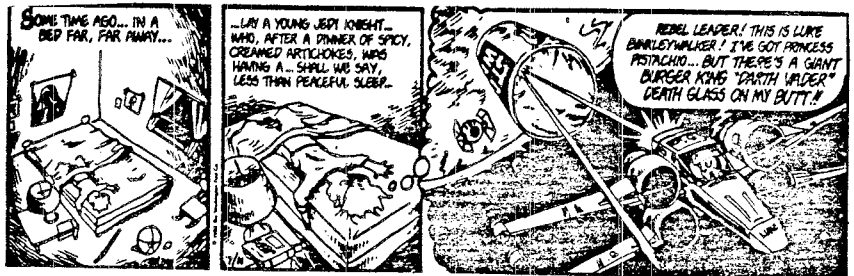

GLORF GURGLE BLIFFY BLOOFER PUDZOOTER?
[YOU JUGGLE A MEAN SPONGE, PRINCESS. BUT WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH MY CLARK BAR?]

BY HAN LANGLEY

Scene: Jabba the Pudge's Toady Festival
 Players: Bob Olsen as Jabba
 Mike Mazzer as Darth Vader (never appears onstage)
 John Michalski as Salacious Crumb
 Cathy Cunning and Eric Ozog as Jabba's toadies
 Daf as Princess Leya
 Don Williams as Luke Skywalker
 Steve Langley as Han Solo (onstage, but asleep)
 Terry Tallman as C3PO

Darth Vader voice over: In a galaxy just down the block...
 Leya: Oh, Jabba, I love the chains and this costume is soooo kinky. What do you say to a chocolate whip break?
 Crumb: Giggle.
 Jabba: Later you will learn to appreciate me.
 Toadies: Ohhhh, Ahhhh...moan...Wha? Who stepped on...ahhh, ohhhh thanks!
 Luke: Jabba, I am Luke Skywalker, a Jedi Knight.
 Leya: Hi Luke, is that your light saber or are you just glad to see me?
 Crumb: Giggle.
 Jabba: Williams? Is that you Williams? When are you going to pay my princess the Clark...uh, that is...Glumph Grrr Gromspach?
 C3PO: My master says, "What do you want?"
 Luke: I'm here to buy back Captain Solo.
 Jabba: Gromph Gum Gaflooyee!
 C3PO: My master says, "Stick it."
 Leya: I like the way you talk, Big Boy.
 Crumb: Giggle.
 Luke: I'll give you two 1962 Clark Bars and an Abba Zabba.
 Leya: Forget about them, Jabba. Clear the room, order up 50 gallons of whipped cream and a vat of hot fudge and you and I can have some fun.
 Luke: What do you say, Jabba?
 Jabba: Glomph? Gooie Glorph!
 C3PO: My master says, "With chopped nuts?"
 Luke: Clark bars have lots of chopped ...
 Leya: And a cherry!
 Crumb: Giggle, giggle!
 Darth Vader voice over: in a time sometime last week...
 Jabba: MAZZER! You're trying to stab me again, aren't you? Come on out here and admit it! I dare you!
 Luke: Uh, Jabba...about Captain Solo...
 Jabba: Eh, oh yeah...Gomphers Glorp Gloopiee.
 C3PO: My master says, "The cherry sounds good."
 Leya: Now you're talking, Big Boy.
 Luke: Leya! I'm trying to buy Han back.
 Leya: Give me ten minutes and you can walk out with him.
 Crumb: Giggle!
 Jabba: Glorfu Glompi Glasgow!
 C3PO: My master says, "Seize him!"
 Toadies: Ahhhh, oh...not nowwww...oh..ahhhhh!
 Crumb: Giggle, smirk, giggle.
 Luke: Jabba, this is you're last chance. Release us or die!
 Leya: But what a way to go!

[Items:

- 1. Paul Gardener also wrote A really swell "Jedi" thing but space, lateness and my lack of typewriter get it the ax- maybe next month. (hint- type your submittals)
- 2. This weekend is "Dragon Flight", a local gaming con. Round 1 found Cathy in Russia and me in Turkey. We played to a 3-way with France. Cathy was at 16 centers and starting to salivate though.
- 3. Subscription fee to this monster is $6⁰⁰ for 10 issues
- 4. For the next game opening send your NAME AND country preference list to DAN STAFFORD- his address is in here somewhere.
- 5. To keep ugly stains off your rugs wrap high thumper in glad bags.

"THINGS ON THE MAT"

THERE IS AN ENGLISH SZINE OF A SIMILIAR NAME AND IT SEEMS THAT SOME OF IT'S STILL WIGGLING WHEN I GET HOME. FIRST A COUPLE OF NEW SZINES.

"MANIFEST DESTINY" BY KEITH SESLER - P.O. BOX 158, FRASER, MICH. 48026. 10 ISSUES FOR $3.00. STANDBYS GET THE SZINE FREE. GAME FEES ARE $1.00, NMR FEE IS $2.00. IF NOTHING ELSE THE PRICE IS RIGHT. SAYS HE HAS OPENINGS FOR REGULAR DIP BLOW UP AND WOOLWORTH II-d.

HE SENT ME ISSUE #3. IT RUNS 10 PAGES, A LITTLE DRY FOR MY TASTE THOUGH. A PAGE ON HEALTH & FITNESS, TWO PAGES OF BOOK & MOVIE REVIEWS AND A ONE PAGER MAKING FUN OF JIMMY CARTER. THIS WAS A GUEST SUBMITTAL BY MIKE ROYKO.

QUITE FRANKLY I'VE NEVER HEARD OF KEITH AND MOST OF THE PEOPLE PLAYING IN HIS THREE GAMES ARE FOLKS I'VE NEVER HEARD OF - WITH THE ~~EXCEPT~~ EXCEPTIONS OF ED HENRY AND JIM MEINEL.

THIS LOOKS LIKE ANOTHER "LITERATE" SZINE, ON A PAR WITH "PEZELANDIA". MY FIRST TEMPTATION IS TO WRITE A TEST LETTER TO SEE WHAT HE'LL PRINT. IF ANY OF YOU WOULD LIKE TO TRY THIS ~~HERE'S~~ A LIST OF ITEMS TO INCLUDE - 1. PRAISE BERNIE TRETICK, 2. KNOCK "DIP DIGEST", 3. USE THE WORD "FUCK" AT LEAST TWICE 4. DEFEND EITHER SIDE IN ANY CURRENT FUED, 5. PROPOSE AN "ORGANIZATION" TO RUN THE HOBBY, 6. SUPPORT HOLDING THE 1985 DIP-CON IN SEATTLE (OR ANCHORAGE), 7. IMPLY THAT SOME MALE HOBBY MEMBER IS GAY (SHOULDN'T ACTUALLY BE) 8. HINT THAT BRUX IS SEEING "ANOTHER WOMAN" 9. SUGGEST A NAME FOR A FAKE OF "MANIFEST DESTINY". 10. WRITE A FOURTEEN PAGE DISCUSSION ON THE IMPORTANCE OF ITALIAN FLEETS IN NORWAY.

THEN WE SEE WHAT HE PRINTS. THIS WILL GIVE A NEARLY SCIENTIFIC RENDERING OF HIS POLITICS, VIEW OF THE HOBBY AND WHO HE TOADYS TO.

I ALSO GOT A COPY OF ED WROBEL'S "POLITESSE". THIS ONE IS CONFUSING. ED WRITES A FAIRLY INTERESTING ARTICLE ABOUT HIS TRIP TO DIP-CON WITH DICK AND JULIE MARTIN BUT FAILS TO PUBLISH A PICTUZE OF JULIE IN HER DIP OUTFIT. EVERYONE I'VE TALKED TO SAYS GOOD THINGS ABOUT IT - (THE DIP OUTFIT - NOT "POLITESSE").

I GET THE FEELING THAT ED HAS NO PLANS TO RUN POSTAL GAMES. RATHER, HE'S ACTING AS A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MARYLAND FACE-TO-FACERS.

IF HE'S GOING TO RUN SOME POSTAL GAMES MAYBE HE'LL SAY SO NEXT ISSUE. ON THAT BASIS I SUGGEST YOU REQUEST A SAMPLE BEFORE YOU SUB. ED WROBEL - 3932 NORTH FORESTDALE AVENUE, DALE CITY, VA 22193

ANOTHER MARYLAND TYPE, DICK MARTIN, CAME OUT WITH THE FOURTH ANNIVERSARY ISSUE OF HIS SZINE - "RETALIATION". OVERALL A VERY READABLE ISSUE WITH LOTS OF GOOD CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE LIKES OF BYRNE AND SHERWOOD. AND OF COURSE THE OBLIGATORY FUED RESPONSES.

DICK ALSO SENT OUT ISSUE #1 OF SOMETHING HE WANTS TO CALL "HOUSE OF LORDS". HE CLAIMS IT WILL BE FOR AND ABOUT GM'S AND PUBLISHING. THIS STRIKES ME AS ANOTHER ONE OF THOSE UNNECESSARY THAT PEOPLE LIKE MILLS AND FEERY GENERATE FROM TIME TO TIME.

MY OWN EXPERIENCE IS THAT TRYING TO APPEAL TO A SELECT SEGMENT OF THE HOBBY IS FAR MORE EFFORT THAN IT'S WORTH.

ANYWAY, DICK CAN BE INSULTED AT - 26 ORCHARD WAY NORTH, ROCKVILLE, MD. 20854

WELL, WE MAY NOT HAVE MADE IT TO PUJGE-CON BUT IT WAS AN INTERESTING MONTH ANYWAY. BOTH THE ORC & DOUG BEYERLEIN STOPPED BY. NOT ON THE SAME WEEKEND ALAS.

OZOG WAS HERE TO CONTINUE HIS STUDIES TOWARDS A BLACK BELT IN VALLEY GIRL WORSHIP.

PERHAPS THE MOST INTERESTING THING THAT HAPPENED WAS THE TOTAL CONFIRMATION OF ERIC'S ORCISH ROOTS. CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN HIM AND MY BROTHER MADE CLEAR THAT THE ORC WANTS TO BE UPWARDLY MOBILE- A TOTALLY NON-ELVISH ATTITUDE.

HE AND THE V.G. WENT CAMPING AND SHE NOTED THAT EVERYTIME A WINNEBAGO DROVE BY HE'D MUMBLE "MY PRECIOUSSSSSSS..."

OF COURSE THE CLINCHER WAS WHEN HE LOOKED UPON THE SEA. HE TURNED HIS BACK ON IT AND RETURNED TO CHICAGO. NO ELF OR EVEN PART ELF COULD HAVE DONE SO.

DOUG & MARIE BEYERLEIN ARE THE ANTI-THESIS OF YOUR STEREOTYPICAL DIPPER. LEAN, TANNED, OUT-DOORS ORIENTED. THEY HAD CLIMBED MT. TRAINER THE DAY BEFORE.

DOUG HAS BEEN IN THE HOBBY SINCE 1968 AND STILL ACTUALLY PLAYS IN A COUPLE OF GAMES.

WE SPENT SOME TIME MAKING FUN OF THE IN-6 AND ALL THE GENERAL EAST COAST CRAZINESS.

THEN HE ASKED "THE QUESTION?" "WHY DO YOU BOTHER WITH GAMES IN YOUR SZINE?"

I WAS STUNNED. COULD IT POSSIBLY BE... "YOU MEAN YOU DON'T HAVE TO RUN GAMES?"

HE CAREFULLY EXPLAINED TO ME THAT I COULD, INDEED PUT OUT A SZINE WITHOUT GOING THROUGH THE ANGUISH OF G.M'ING (OR ATTEMPTING TO) GAMES.

THERE'S A LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL.

A BIG HIGH LIGHT LAST MONTH WAS MY NEWEST GROUPIE, THE LOVELY JOAN EXTROM. SHE, HER DAUGHTER SAMANTHA AND SOME STRANGER STOPPED BY TO MEET ME AND THE VALLEY GIRL. I NOTICED THAT KEN (JOAN CALLS THE LUMP "KEN") WOULD GO INTO A SORT OF TRANCE WHENEVER WE MENTIONED THE IN-6. WHEN "WHITESTONIA" WAS MENTIONED HE BEGAN TO QUIETLY ANORE. SHE OFFERED THE LUMP TO CATHY FOR USE AS A DOOR STOP BUT GOT NO TAKERS.

AND YES, JOAN, NOW THAT YOU'VE CONFIRMED TO THE HOBBY VIA KATHY'S KORNER THAT I'M W-8" AND BLONDE YOU HAVE BEEN PROMOTED TO CLASS 3, HOBBY SEX-GHOD GROUPY STATUS.

ONLY DAF HAS MADE THE COVETED CLASS 2 STATUS. CATHY HAS ONLY MADE IT UP TO CLASS 9T BUT I'M SURE SHE'LL LEARN.

I'VE GOT A NOMINEE FOR CLASS 1 STATUS BUT SHE HAS NO INTEREST IN DIPLOMACY.

TENATIVELY THE NEXT ISSUE WILL DEAL WITH SLUGS. SUBMITTALS SHOULD BE TYPED ON 11"X 14" PAPER OR 8 1/2"X 11" TURNED SIDEWAYS IN THE TYPEWRITER.

THE YAWNER POLL RESULTS

A LITTLE ROLL ON THE DRUMS PLEASE...

MOST BORING SZINE - DIPLOMACY DIGEST

MOST BORING PUBBER - JOHN "CHUCKLES" BOARDMAN

MOST BORING SUBSZINE - EVERYTHING IN "MODERN PATRIOT"

MOST OUT OF TOUCH WITH THE HOBBY - JOHN BOARDMAN

WITH HONORABLE MENTION TO LARRY PEERY & MIKE MILLS
HOBBY PEARL DIVER AND ANARCHIST -

TERRY "DA TOADFATHER" TALLMAN.

MOST OBNOXIOUS HOBBY MEMBER(S)

A 3 WAY TIE !!! GARY COUGHLAN

BRUX LINSEY

DICK MARTIN.

WHEN I REALIZED WHERE THE VOTING WAS HEADED I REALIZED MY SYSTEM COULDN'T POSSIBLY COPE WITH THE GRUDGE VOTING SO I SCRAPPED IT AND STARTED OVER. THE NEW SYSTEM IS FOOL-PROOF AND MOST ACCURATLY REFLECTS THE WILL OF THE VOTERS.

AND YET ANOTHER POLL - THE TOAD POLL, IN WHICH YOU CHOOSE YOUR FAVORITE TOADS AND TOADIES. TOADS GIVE ORDERS AND PULL STRINGS. TOADIES JUMP WHEN TOADS PULL STRINGS. THEY ARE USUALLY TOTALLY MINDLESS AND THE REALLY BAD ONES WRITE TONS OF PRESS.

JOHN BOARDMAN, LAST YEARS MASTER IS ALWAYS A FAVORITE, AND OF COURSE JIM-BOB BURGESS IS WAY OUT IN FRONT OF THE REST OF THE TOADIES.

SO ANYWAY VOTE FOR 3 OF EACH AND SEND YOUR VOTES TO MARK "VEGEMATIC" LUEDI

P.O. BOX 2424

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA 47402

AND FOR THOSE OF YOU HESITATING OVER PLAYING IN THE NEXT (LAST?) NSWG GAME START-BEAR IN MIND THAT DAN STAFFORD - NOT ME - WILL BE THE G.M. THE GAME FEE AND NMZ FEE ARE BOTH FREE, A RARE OCCURANCE. SO IF IT FILLS BY NEXT DEADLINE YOU'LL BE ABLE TO SAY YOU PLAYED IN THE TUG BOAT OF THE HOBBY.

SO SEND BIFFY A COUNTRY LIST. HOW ABOUT SOME OF YOU DEADWOOD? 4 Players signed up - Biffy needs 3 more!

NO IDEAS YET ON NEXT MONTHS COVER BUT IF YOU HAVE AN ARTICLE OR LETTER YOU'D LIKE PRINTED PLEASE TYPE ON 8 1/2" x 11" PAPER AND TURN THE PAPER SIDEWAYS IN THE MACHINE

ARTICLES MAY BE ON ANY TOPIC AND I DON'T PROMISE TO RUN THEM. THE ONES I RUN RESULT IN SUB CREDIT.

VICIOUS RUMOURS

THE HILLS WERE ALIVE WITH THE SOUND OF DRCS.

T.S.S. THE S... SLINGER

Okay, I'm sitting here with a selectric handy so I might as well put the Navy's time to good use. You can tell you've gone to work for the government when you go to the restroom and each stall has a well stocked magazine rack. There are a few other perks too. I now have a little gray truck that says U.S. Navy that I drive around to job sites.

My duty title is Construction Representative, that means that when ever new construction by civilian contractors is performed, me or one of my cohorts has the responsibility to monitor construction, insure compliance to the specs and regs and make sure the Navy is unnecessarily ripped off. A rough job but somebody has to do it.

Because I was in the Air Force for five years, six months, fourteen days (not that I kept track) I get moved up to the second level of vacation--20 days per year. When they first told me this I was sure they were kidding but once I believed I knew I had come to that great final resting spot before retirement.

My office is in Silverdale, near Bremerton, Washington for all you map freaks. But because the navy has quite a few facilities in Seattle they let me spend most of my time on the east side of the pond. That means that I only get back to my office once or twice a week, not a bad way to live.

Perhaps the most amazing thing about the job is that I got it without an interview. Many of the federal jobs have registers. That means you apply at any time and when they have an opening they pick from the most promising on the list. They normally interview but don't have to under certain circumstances. So with my five bonus points for being a Vietnam era Veteran I got 102 out of a 100 possible points. Thank god there were no crippled, minority, Vietnam vets on the list, I could have been in trouble.

It's now about 3:15 p.m. and I've wrapped up my day. The office I share is with an accounting clerk and she's on vacation this week so I decided to loosen up the old fingers a little bit.

Below this should be Ed Henry's account of playing dip at Jim Meinel's right before Jim left for Alaska. To remove the veil of secrecy Jim Meinel was Austria--fast start but faded early and got sent for burgers, Ed Henry was Italy--too many stabs to early, two locals were Russia and Turkey, Cathy Cuning was Germany, I was England and the incredibly bizarre Jack Fleming was France.

Jack opened with the Octo-Fleming F-Eng, A Bur, A Pie, a set of moves gaurenteed to piss off everyone in the west. If he had then chosen just one of us to lean on he could have kicked butt, but instead he kept after both Cathy and me, thus forcing her to not stab for the first time ever. Jack got into London and he supported the wop into Munich in 1901. Meanwhile the east was a mess. We strggled in the west until suddenly a rather ominous R-T stood across the middle of the board. Jack broke all of his own most dearly held theories and decided to play for a draw rather than the win.

Jack and Ed went away and we played a second game with roughly the same results. This time we had a four-way instead of a five way but my England controlled Scandinavia, Germany and was on the verge of blitzing through Russia, I had lots of armies.

So there's some typing for those of you who bitch and moan about my lettering.

Take it away Ed.....

An FTF, a Draw and Lessons Learned: Confession of a Rookie

Random assignment: Italy. Groan...

Actually, the afternoon started well. I arrived--ten minutes late--only to discover that four of the participants were still missing (one accounted for, three whereabouts unknown). A short while later the others appeared, and we got underway with surprisingly little wasted time.

This was to be my first FTF (and first complete game, although I was not fated to survive) in something over ten years, so I was eagerly looking forward to it. It was also my first meeting with two of my pubbers (Tallman and Meinel) as well as with several other (in)famous persons who shall remain nameless herein.

Tallman, by the way, can't possible be more than six-four, and for some reason he disguises his blond hair... The game. FTF differs from postal Diplomacy in several respects. For instance, it is almost impossible to achieve a successful stab after the first few turns, as it is entirely too easy for everyone else to see who you are talking to and for how long. In addition, simple-minded people like me need a little more time to think over the available options and then to discuss them with everyone. I also thought a disproportionate amount of time was spent discussing the formation of the stalemate lines among members of the obvious RT and EFG alliances. This particular game ended in a five-way draw: I would have been surprised to see that result had it been played by mail.

It all began harmlessly enough. R/T versus Austria and a misguided Italy in the east with England, France and Germany jockeying for position in the west. My Italians and the French did manage to slow German expansion by forcing them to defend Munich the first year, thereby gaining just one build; but the French stab of England in London, which occurred at the same time, prevented any follow-up effort against the Germans. France and England were at odds for years following the stab, while Germany played catch-up and I sent a fleet to the Mid-Atlantic looking for something to do. I also sent an army all the way to Silesia for the same reason. My buddy, Austria, felt he could do without help, and soon built up a force of seven units--the first power in the game to reach that lofty plateau. Unfortunately, the Austrian and I couldn't work up a coordinated plan, so I finally gave up and stabbed him in Trieste at the same time R/T started a well-coordinated effort to cut him up in the lower Balkans. ~~Hummm~~--bad timing. Also during this time period Italy had a fleet in the Eastern Med which didn't have anything in particular to do--lack of proper prior planning strikes again.

Moving right along, EFG finally got together after some more juggling and decided to move east en masse about the time Austria expired and I was in the process of losing Trieste and then Venice to a continuance of the coordinated R/T attack. Something could probably have been salvaged at this point if any sort of Italian-German communication had existed: unfortunately it had ceased shortly after the end of 1901, and by this stage of the game the German was being monopolized by the E/F while I was being badgered by R/T. The German was doubtless a bit annoyed with me anyway: I wouldn't leave Munich alone. I took it once, too--during the Spring. Ugh.

At any rate, the West was about a year too far away to help Italy and I decided to be as annoying as possible to R/T on my way out. A basically futile gesture, as I was steam-rollered anyway, and out by the end of 1908.

Then the stalemate lines were drawn--through Italy ("sniff"), along the German border, and around St. Petersburg. The final result was interesting to me because the subject of a draw had come up several times starting at about four o'clock (sometime in '05 or '06, I think it was). The desultory play continued for another two-and-a-half hours before a draw was finally agreed upon.

One suggestion which could help avoid a draw like the one which occurred in this case is to require every surviving player to spend five minutes with each other survivor in a separate room--a process which might require twenty minutes or so. In this particular game the Turk might have had a chance by going it alone: he built several unnecessary fleets near the end of the game. A couple of armies moving on the totally undefended Russian centers in the Balkans, perhaps coupled with a French move against the English, and it could have been a different game. Ahhh...what do I know, anyway?

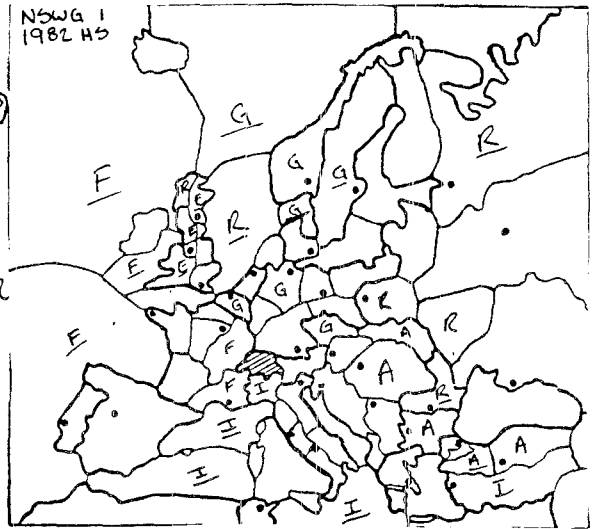

It was fun, and with luck I'll get to do it again. Next time, there will be some changes made...

AND THEN TAN JOHNSON SAID "AS A G.M. YOU SUCK, WHY DON'T YOU RE-DRPHAN OUR GAMES?" "SHAZAM!" I RESPONDED: "AND BIFFY STAFFED IN THE NEW GM FOR NSWG 4 AND 5."

 Yes, folks, you heard it right. Check out the Elf Express to Wichita and you will find that a certain Boob we all know and love has a seat booked. The question is... will Pudge let him come?

Italy-GM: I've heard a disgusting rumour that my all-time favorite short tall person, will not be in Wichita. Tell me it ain't so!

Boob to Mop Top: Boy, do I feel taken. This is the way things are going in every one of my games now. Don't worry, that tape is still on top. If Jerry is swamped again then by the time you read this my gossamer sweet offering should be in your hot little hands. Be no hard feelings. Just don't dare to show your face at Pudgecon. Do you realize that, aside from the...

Postal Monopoly - Game Start & House Rules

NSWG-6
P.M. 1983-A

All rules printed with the game apply except the following:

1. The G.M. is the banker
2. All movement is simultaneous.
 - a. If a player rolls doubles he receives double movement for that turn
3. If two or more players land on a property they may each bid on the property. If one player lands on a property and does not buy it the property remains on the market.
4. All taxes are placed on "Free Parking", any player landing there receives all money currently there.
5. There are only 32 houses and 12 hotels, this is in the rules but bears repeating.
6. Properties may be sold - but without improvements. Properties may be traded but if you state "I give Boardwalk to Brux in exchange for Oriental" Brux will get Boardwalk. If he states "I'll accept Boardwalk but give nothing to Berch," Then Berch has been "stabbed." You can not make the transfer of property conditional. The same will apply on sales. If Coughlan says "I sell the Reading Railroad to DMF for $500 gold" and she says nothing to the GM - Gary Coughlan is out a choo-choo. He's been stabbed.
7. No player may order another's units.
8. The G.M. is not a psychic - write legibly & clearly
9. Dead lines will be the same as all regular games.
10. Press is lily white.
11. You each have $1500⁰⁰ and no property

Will everyone please resubmit their metal marker choice - I lost/misplaced the list.

Eric rolls 5	CAN bid on Reading R.R.
Kurt rolls 8	CAN buy Vermont Ave
Caroline rolls 3	CAN bid on Baltic Ave
Eric's friend rolls 11	CAN bid on St. Charles
Jim-Bob rolls 9	CAN buy Oriental Ave
Stephen rolls 4 (doubles) and 7	Pays $150 tax and can St. Charles
Mark rolls 5	CAN bid on Reading Railroad
Mary rolls 5	CAN bid on Reading Railroad
Karyn rolls 7	Chance-Advance to nearest Railroad, can Bid on Penn R.R.
Ruth rolls 4 (doubles) and 8	Pays $150 tax and can buy Electric Company
John rolls 3	CAN bid on Baltic Avenue
Jabba rolls 10 (doubles) and 5	- CAN bid on Pennsylvania Railroad

Everyone still has $1500⁰⁰ Except Stephen & Ruth At $1350⁰⁰ each.
Remember - there is no minimum or maximum bid. Any player can drop at anytime by notifying the G.M. A position will keep moving if a player quits but doesn't notify the G.M. After 2 NMR'S Any subber to NSWG can pick up a position that's been dropped. A position may be decided to anyone not currently in the game by the original player.

The N.S.W.G. Variient Number for this little monster is NSWG-6/PM.1983-A.
If anyone knows if the Miller Custodian keeps track of Monopoly let me know.
And of course Parker Bros. A subsidiary of General Mills owns the copyright to this sucker.

THE 1983 HOBBY DEMONSTRATION FUED

MANY OF YOU OUT THERE HAVE BEEN READING VARIOUS SZINES LATELY AND ASKING YOURSELVES, "AM I READY FOR A FEUD?" MAYBE YOU'RE NOT SURE IF YOU'RE RUDE ENOUGH. PERHAPS YOU'RE UNABLE TO SHUT OFF LOGIC WHEN YOU READ LETTERS FROM FRIENDS. OR MAYBE YOU'RE NOT READY TO PSH OFF FRIENDS AND STRANGERS ALIKE
IF THIS DESCRIBES YOU THEN PERHAPS YOU'RE NOT READY TO FUED. BUT IF YOU WANT THE ENTIRE HOBBY TO THINK YOU'RE AN ASSHOLE WE'LL TRY AND SHOW YOU HOW.

THE RULES

1. WINTER 1900 - FIND THREE PUBLISHERS WHO'S SZINES WILL SUPPORT YOU. THESE ARE YOUR HOME CENTERS. A CENTER IS ANY SZINE WITH A SUB LIST OF MORE THAN 20 BUT LESS THAN 100 AND PUBBED AT LEAST QUARTERLY.
2. MOVEMENT WILL BE IN THE FORM OF "HATE MAIL" OR "TOADY MAIL". HATE MAIL CAN ONLY BE WRITTEN TO SZINES NOT CURRENTLY SUPPORTING YOUR VIEW. THE ATTACK CAN BE DIRECTED AT THE PUBBER OR A DEMO-FEUDEIZ. TOADY LETTERS CAN BE WRITTEN TO A PLAYER'S OWN CENTERS TO KEEP THAT PUBBERS SUPPORT, TO NEUTRAL PUBBERS TO GAIN THEIR SZINES AS CENTERS, AS SUPPORT FOR HATE LETTERS. BELOW ARE SAMPLE MOVES:

CATHY WRITES TOADY LETTER TO LE FRONT. BOOPER DOES, TOO.
THUS WE HAVE - CATHY T L LE F, BOOPER T L LE F

IN THIS CASE NEITHER MOVE SUCCEEDS. HOWEVER - TOADY LETTERS CAN SUPPORT TOADY OR HATE LETTERS. THUS WE MIGHT HAVE:

KEITHER WRITES TOADY LETTER TO KISS MY HAMSTER. JIM-BOB WRITES A HATE LETTER TO KISS MY HAMSTER. DAF WRITES A TOADY LETTER THAT SUPPORTS KEITHER. THIS GIVES US - KEITHER T L KMH, JIM-BOB H L KM
DAF T L & KEITHER T L KMH

PLAYERS:

THE LOVELY DAF - "GROUPIE EXTRAORDINAIRE"

CATHY "ORC STRUCK" CUNNING

JIM "COLD AS A PLUMBERS HELPER IN NOIME" MEINEL

JIM "BOB" BURGESS

JIM "THE" WALL

LARRY "SQUINT AND" PEERY

BOB "KISS MY" OSUCH

JOHN "MULHAILSHUI"

"BOOPER" BOWEN

JOAN "CUPCAKE EXTROM

JOHN "WIMP CAZUSO

JOHN "YAWN" BORDMAN

NOTE: I HAVE TO SEE THE SZINES YOU WRITE TO. HOW I GET THEM IS YOUR PROBLEM.

DEAD LINE IS SAME AS ALL OTHER GAMES.

PRESS IS GRAY

WELL FANS, HERE IT IS AGAIN- THE LAST PAGE. LATE, NOT AS BIG AS WE MIGHT HAVE HOPED FOR BUT WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM THE 17th SZINE IN THIS YEAR'S SNOOT POLL?

A COUPLE OF THE SZINES I TRADE FOR DID SO POORLY THE DIDN'T EVEN SHOW UP ON THE POLL. BUT I MANAGED TO LET "WHITESTONIA" BEAT ME- MY GOOD DEAD FOR THE YEAR.
