

PEN & SWORD is a Compendium of Postal Diplomacy Games. The goal of P&S is many-faceted: Legibility, Accuracy, Punctuality, and Economy. Orphan games may be accepted at a reduced rate. PEN & SWORD is a member of the fine family of Seven Hills Publications (periodicals dealing with postal gaming of several kinds) based in Richmond, Virginia. Your Gamesmaster in P&S will be Michael Lind

VIENNA to PARIS-- What makes you think anybody else is reading it?
 PARIS--- "That's another fine mess you've gotten me into, Stanley!"
 PARIS--- OK! Now, you're all in for it! Idiot-type PRESS is now about to GUSH forth from this capital.
 BANKS MANG! (Puerto Rican talk)

MOTIONS:

---Gay Draw: All remaining players share equally in draw;
 Concession: England/France to share 1st with other two countries surviving.

Note: In the past, John Baker has requested me to count all who abstain as "yes" votes in such cases on the basis that if they don't care to vote, they don't really care how the game ends. Well, John, I've never heard of that being done - for any outcome other than a straight win. My house rules read that the vote must be unanimous on any decision. Even if they don't vote either way, I can't decide for them as GM.

VOTE with the next issue!

Does ANYBODY KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS!

Gentlemen, in last issue, I listed Perry Knowles as having moves on file and so he did not send me any. Well, I couldn't find them then and I can't find them now. I did call it an NMR but I will recall that. And since a move has passed, I am not going to call the season over unless I get a unanimous vote from all of you.

Also, there was a question as to whether the German Army in Silesia should have been annihilated - I have ruled this as correct after going back and looking at it again. Thanks for pointing it out anyway.
