SPARE THE CONDOLENCES

This will only be a short note to advise all subscribers and traders that Passchendaele is folding.

Effective immediately, all trades are cancelled. Refunds of all outstanding cash balances will also be enclosed with this instalment.

Exceptions:

- (1) John Cain will remain responsible for all Australasian refunds except Anul Inthiranajah's as he handled these accounts;
- (2) Jason Asher's subscription will be handled by Randy Grigsby, as it is my understanding that he has received, but not yet transferred to me, his payment through the International Subscription Exchange.

All games will be continued to completion under my auspices using a warehousian format as vehicle for publication of the adjudications. Issues produced for this purpose will be distributed to players and standbys free of charge. The commentary originally scheduled to appear for 1990CB (El Agheila) will not be run.

It would be of great help to me if current subscribers agreed to remain on to join my standby list to enable orderly and successful completion of all games.

No opposition on my part will be forthcoming if players prefer to have their games transferred to another publication instead.

One or more "regular" issues may yet be produced shortly in order to expedite the current backlog of letters and articles. Such issues will be distributed to all current traders and subscribers. This, however, is not a firm undertaking.

Thanks are in order to all readers for their support.
You will be remembered fondly.

François.
