1. Have all of you noticed the nifty addresses with which your envelopes are adorned? What's that you say? It looks like your address is typewritten to you? Why, you ask? I'm glad you asked that question. Our $75 brand spanking new addresser is now sitting somewhere in New York City, hopefully being repaired, and, better yet, we might even get it back in time for the Jan. 74 issue of PELLUCIDAR. Without even trying, we breezed to a new record of 7 hours from time of purchase until the time honorable addresser self-destructed. What can be expected from something that is 97% plastic, I ask you? Not much, it appears. The continuing Perils of El Cheapo addresser shall be entered if, and when, I get it back. There's one born every day.....

2. I have personally sold or distributed over 50 copies of the Youngstown Variant Map. DIRIGO PRESS has therefore run off a second edition, in duplicator rather than photo-copy. This second edition is made in two colors: purple and red. It came out pretty darn good even if I do say so myself. In view of the fact that I made a large run (55 copies!), I've decided to sell these at 24¢ a copy rather than 32¢. Know anyone who needs a YV map? Refer them to me.....

3. The Super-Game has filled, and is about to start. The first moves should be recorded in PELLUCIDAR #11, and country assignments are about to be sent out. Seven people payed a record $10.10 gamefee for this round, and I suspect the infighting will be savage, so follow it here!

4. Speaking of records, the latest issue of EVERYTHING reports that 120 games have started in the first six months of 1973! Unreal!

5. I've just about gotten it straight in my head what will be open in Sept/Oct for new games. A Minimum of three: one regular game GM'd by me, one regular game probably GM'd by John Hendry, and one variant opening: The Hyborean Age (Conan and all that). The variant will be GM'd by me, I neglected to mention. If there is an overflow above this, we might try a carbon copy or two: this depends on a lot of things.

6. In co-ordination with the above, DIRIGO PRESS Houserules will be coming out in a second edition within 2-3 months. Also with the above, we will be making sets of the Hyborean Age map.....soon.

7. James Massar still has openings in a YV game in his SPQR. His address is found within.

8. More deadwood has been chucked out for this issue than ever before. The following people no longer receive PELLUCIDAR or anything else from DIRIGO PRESS: John Lawrey (ceased publishing), Michel Liesnard (ceased publishing), Nick Shears (hereby labeled a pro rip-off), Ansoff, and Antosiak (no communication re ANTARES folding). Also delete Nash from players.

*Diplomacy is a registered trademark for the game made by Games Research Inc. of Boston, Massachusetts.

YE OLDE MAILING LISTEE.....enjoy this, folks, 'cause I don't dig typing up the blamed thing, and yer might not see it too often.

Ray Bergeron was removed for missing two consecutive moves, and Doug Beyerlein has taken his place. Address on page two.

There has been a complaint (or protest, whichever you prefer) filed by Walter Blank in this game. Here it is: "I protest the fact that you would allow a complete stranger to submit orders for AUSTRIA without first giving the players a chance to negotiate with him and for some type of alliances!! After all a lot went into the forming of alliances we now have a some knot head could just step in and stab the hell out of someone who had formerly been the strongest of Austrian allies and befriend someone who had previously been Austria's sworn enemy therefore lessening the chances of the one who had gone through much pain and trouble forming a good working alliance.

I think that if Ray doesn't submit his orders this turn Austria should go into civil disorder and be appointed a new player to begin with the Winter of 1902 OR Fall 1902 should be replayed with Austria having been assigned a new player with which everyone can negotiate."

My answer to Walt: I realize that you might have a justifiable complaint here. Yet I use the same method in all my games, and whatever disadvantage you may suffer from this, ALL the players are in the same boat. You will note from this season's moves that you were overruled on this issue, Walter, however, I will be glad to hear whatever comments you might be able to generate from the other players. Respectfully yours, Burt.

73Hbu-OMSK (Sep 3 1903) The Far Eastern F was mobilized today to meet the growing threat of Japanese sea power around Vladivostok. It appears the treaty signed with Japan is now worthless. Outnumbered two to one, the Russian Fleet has little chance of victory but they will fight or none-the-less. The Central Russian Army Group was also put on alert to possible Turkish treachery. We will see how our alliance holds up with them.

BERLIN: After being asked to get out of Tyrolia, I hope you get out now, or else we're at a state of war.

73AN-St. Petersburg- Sultan Holloman's father, recently captured in a border dispute in the Armenian-Sevastopol area was today returned to Turkey via the Black Sea Fleet which was supposedly supporting Army Ukraina to Rumania and would pick up the old man while landing supplies for the occupying army.

St. Petersburg- Regretfully England and Russia have been unable to avoid a conflict over England's failure to move according to plans. Therefore Russian forces have moved to occupy Norway to gain the bud the English had promised us.

LONDON-(Oct 7 1902)-The Gov't and people of Great Britain are grieved to learn of the perfidy of the French Gov't. We maintain the belief that the government is not acting in the best interests of the French people, and we call on them to give voice to their true convictions. France has been disgraced, and she will not soon recover her honor.

72EA-TRIESTE- I hope you wops are ready to take Trieste from me. Like fast, this spring?

LONDON-(Whitehall)-Admiral of the Red Sir Wm. Warfare, DSC, VC, OB, Earl of Nohavenothing, a heck of a nice guy, and victor of the great Babbie Bank Battle, is to be known forever as the "Avenger" by order of his Majesty, Charles I.

After a long tour of duty as commander of the Royal Horse Drawn Naval Coast Defence Battery, set sail from Liverpool for Chicago in HMS Lollipop, arriving there June 22, to find the world again at war. As this ship, the HMS Lollipop showed a tendency to dissolve in the warmer inland waters, our good Admiral was stranded, and at once offered his sword to the Kaisers representative then in Chicago.

After some initial confusion partially caused as Sir William tried to sail his new command up the Thames for view by his friends, England and Germany became fast friends (Aryans you know). And descended dfoot, horse, and marines upon that infamous backstabber, Don Pitsch I, Tsar of all the Russias, which was reduced if memory serves to two villages in Ukraine and half a dung heap in Albania.

After Russia's fall (How sweet it is!!) France fell to England and Germany (Damn the Frogs!!). The war then degenerated into a face making contest, in which Sir William, having a head start in that department, acquitted himself admirably.

BARAD FOREST TO LONDON- You watch how you "damn frogs" in this zine, you half-breed.....yok-yok.

BARAD FOREST-Jim Massaer has threatened to hold his breath and turn green if we don't enter his only press release submitted thus far, so...

73AR-BERLIN-We wish to congratulate the French Government on its tact, diplomacy and subtlety concerning its indicated areas of expansion.

Burt here.... I do not want to meddle in this game, but I think you can PRESS.... add ~~Brest~~ to the English supply center listing.

I also underlined Bud and Bre, Tom. Correct?

MUNICH: We cannot stand idly by while Austria continues its ceaseless aggression against Italy, Russia, Germany and Italy are already taking measures to counter the folly of the Austrian Emperor. We call on Turkey to stop supporting the crumbling Austrian autocracy and instead to help put an end to this sordid caper.

73AR press cent.....BERLIN-We would also like to congratulate them on the remarkable way in which they have negated England's traditional supremacy on the high seas. Viva la France! (While you can)

9. We've been telling you in print that this mine, and DIRIGO PRESS, is a one-man show. As of late, that is not entirely correct. Due to the increasing circulation of this mother, my wife, Liz, has begun helping in the collating, stapling, and other things which have to be done, but aren't really fun. So from me and no doubt from some of the players and readers of PELLUCIDAR, thanks, Lizzie!

10. The latest issue of PANZERFAUST announces a convention to be held in Bath, Maine in August of this year. The BarSauron Brigade (Edi Birsan, John Stevens, Joel Klein, Arn Froujansky, and James Messar) may consider itself officially slapped in the face by me to attend. Venture north into the frozen wastes of Cimmeria and die, fools! Also the Eller PanzerGruppen is hereby challenged to appear (Tom Eller, John Hendry, Drew McGee, Robert Sacks, George Phillies, Stan Cohen, Dave Cressey, Steve Hall, and Bruce Thatcher), surely some, most, or all of you folks wouldn't mind driving 220 miles to get your pants beat off? I will put my foot in my mouth ahead of time, and say that I'm going. I'll try, at least. I couldn't live with the thought of not making it to Maine's first official convention. It's titled Down East Wargame Convention (DEWCON), by the way. Hope to see you there! Make that Belfast, Maine, not Bath.

11. Other than a personal letter from Joel Klein (thanks), word has not reached here yet of what the results of this years DipCon were. However, it should start popping up in other journals, so keep your eyes open (as I wasn't there, I can't give you folks a report!).

12. General Order on hand:

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| Game #1: Bobby | Game #4: Moriarty, Klein |
| Game #2: (Eller GM) | Game #5: Peterson |
| Game #3: Jones | Game #6: Hodge |

13. Thanks to Mssrs. Kelly, Klein, Vagts, and Sacks for submitting standby orders (Austria in 73AN) along with Beyerlein.

14. ALL back issues of PELLUCIDAR, except for #9, are gone. At last! ALL back issues of ANTARES are gone.

15. Don't forget, the Super-Game starts in next issue, I honestly think it will prove interesting. See Weswig gurgle as Stevens blade plunges deep! See Beam cry as Dirty Doug rolls over his forces! Stand aghast as Coyne commits self-flagellation in front of Blank! And laugh as Boler sits in the corner by himself strangling his teddy-bear!
