THE GAMESMASTER: Brenton Ver Ploeg, 520 Parker Ave., # 202; San Francisco, CA 94118. Phone number is (415) 668-9218, and if you have not sent me YOUR phone number, please do so, in accordance with PP house rules. I shall publish all phone numbers with PP #9 if I do not receive notice otherwise.

THE DEADLINE: Noon Tuesday, July 18, 1972. Phone Calls should have been completed by the previous evening, because I will usually call collect by then if your moves are not in.

HOUSE RULES: Mandatory. If you have lost your copy, ask for another one--and send an 8c stamp.

STAND-BY PLAYERS:

- 1) James C. Hall
- 2) Tony Pandin (if he subscribes)

You thus have one week over the usual three-week deadline for initial negotiations, and thus no extensions will be granted. Please send in some conditional Fall 1901 moves conditional on the Spring results, just to play safe.

Mail to McCallum should go airmail. I doubt if it will speed up mail to Soong over a day to send it airmail, but it might help. He's in Thailand, or Burma, or something like that.

This game took forever to begin. Throughout, however, I have persistently mentioned in PP that I would refund game fees if asked. Otherwise, you were still in. Lipson replaces Strayer in the initial line-up. Let the conflagration begin!
