This is the last issue of The Podunk News. There are no subscriptions available. Everything is over, so we'll dispense with the formalities.

News

Like I say, the magazine is at an end. I have had several years of putting out this insipid nonsense for an ungrateful hobby filled to the brim with people like Curt Gibson, who seem to think that they rule the hobby with their idiotic lies. I have better things to do with my time ~~than~~ than to argue with him or with the IDA, or its remnants.

I have gotten married, and am happy. I've pulled completely out of Diplomacy, and doubt that I'll ever get back in to it. But some weeks ago I got a letter forwarded to me from Mr. Heuer about Podunk's games being transferred, that's why this came out. I may as well end these games now, and let Mr. Heuer do what he wants.

I hope that none of you will ask any more of me. I have returned any subscription balances which were of any value, as subscribers will tell you. The games are now being wrapped up, and I have effectively finished my duties as Gamesmaster of this 'zine.

I may as well just get to the point and then ramble on at the end of the issue.

1976 BJ - Winter 1913.

A draw has been declared. None of the original players wish to continue this game, so they all agreed to a three way draw. So be it, then.

Game: 1976BJ

(Draw called by players.) * - played one unit short.  - played two units short.

1977 CU - Spring 1907.

Due to the fact that this game is irregular anyway (both because of my own mistakes and because of Curt Gibson's machinations in other games, I feel I ought to call a draw. So we'll just lay this game to rest and help Mr. Heuer out some by doing that.

Game: 1977 CU.
