Mr. Prosnitz didn't send in any money and Bob Stimmel has moved to an unknown address, so Russia has been placed into CD. I'd like to thank Bob Kluge for playing his position to the bitter end. There was a little problem last turn as I forgot to include the CD Jap hold and remove orders. Franco's A Osa-Hon should have succeeded as the Jap unit in Hon was removed. I wrote a card to Gene but it seems that it arrived too late. The deadline is May 27. And now for press. Oh, send your mail to Phil Cooper's new address: 50 E Brandis Ave, Staten Island, NY 10308. Phone - (212) 957-9174.

INDIA-FOURH: I'm glad someone likes the way I play. Too bad they didn't like it when I had more units to play with.

INDIA-AUS: I didn't have much chance to irritate you before, so why not now?

INDIA-RUSSIA: I never intended on attacking you, so I hope you are next.

INDIA-CHINA: I'm glad to see you doing well for once!

PRIL: Once again, China unilaterally condemns Austria for fabricating the entire Spring press.

ITALY: Isn't it nice to have so many supportive friends?

AUS-FRA: Italy's mine! Why don't you attack someone your own size such as England!?

JOINT STATEMENT OF THE IMPERIAL PARLIAM ON THE NEED FOR RESTRAINTS: AUSTRIA HUNGARY: "We have finalized a compromise as usual...

Defense Ministers gathered on the occasion of the 9th Asiatic for the Asiatic meeting; on the 7th and 8th of July of 1905 in Bruges noted with great concern that Russia, Germany, and Japan for the past seasons have been engaged in increasingly fabulous troop movements and other non-threatening movements around Cank.

Ministers stated that acts of non-intervention including the non-use of the threat of the non-use of military force are incompatible with the professed Russian desire for war and total hegemony and are inconsistent with the Sino-Russian accords and the Potsdam Charter.

Recalling the statements of defense and foreign ministers in 1900 they reaffirmed that any Russian military, non-intervention would pose a serious threat to insecurity and instability and would have profound implications for all aspects of East-West relations. In particular, they agreed that the Russians would gravely undermine the basis for effective arms negotiations if they were not to intervene in the internal affairs of Cluj. The cloddy Clujians, or Clujites or whatever they profess to be, should never be free to decide their own future"

AUS-GR: Is the Turkish fleet in the Persian Gulf amphibious, able to cross land and launch an attack on Siberia?

AUS-ITA: If your army in Tri, which attacked Austria in Spring 1905, is not moved back to Venice in Fall 1905, then Austria will declare an all out war against Italy. This war will be conducted with all the military and diplomatic means and objectives in mind at Austria's disposal. Italy attacked Austria and not the other way around.

AUS-ENG: Please be advised that War, Kos, and Sev are Austrian centers, OK?

AUS-TUR: Go east, young man! The land of milk and honey lies east, young man. In other words, friend, I get paranoid when you look at me.

AUS-FRA: I did not ask for your help. If Italy retreats out of Tri and my home centers, I promised not to attack him. The battle is all yours then. However...

AUS-CHI: Write to me regarding improved diplomatic relations; PO Box 02211, San Diego, CA 92138.
