This is a pretty lousy issue, isn't it? You shouldn't have to pay for it, should you? Tell you what. As you know, we need more subscribers. In fact since our costs have gone up 60%, if we don't get them we'll go broke. Right now, we have gotten five of the fifteen subscribers we must get by January 31. If we get those other ten subscribers, we will credit everybody with one free issue, thus making this issue not count.
O.K.?

Speaking of new subscribers. Do you know what David Hov did? He went out and got his brother, Donald, to sub.
Now if he will sacrifice his brother for five free issues, why can't you sacrifice a mere friend? If you get a friend to sub, you will get five free issues, and he will get the Anniversary Issue.

On January 11, David Staples' home was totally destroyed by fire. He lost everything except for the clothes he was wearing. The text of a letter he sent to a few game-masters will be printed next issue to inform you of how this affects his publishing efforts. Conrad von Metzke has started a collection for David, pointing out that a little money can be very helpful after a financial (as well as personal) disaster like this. If everyone reading this sent in one or two dollars, we could, with the rest of the money Conrad is collecting, present David with a nice sum. You can send your gift to us, or to Conrad at P.O. Box 4, San Diego, CA 92112. Please be sure to note in either case, that the money is for David Staples. If you do not specifically request anonymity, your name will be included on a list of those who contributed.

Please send in any money within the next ten days. Thank you.
