MOSCOW To Berlin: Sorry about the Denmark move, if I do happen to end up with it. It is an attempt to assure myself of one supply center in the North, since you so nicely kept me from taking Sweden in Fall 1901 and consequently caused the troubles I am now experiencing with Britain. Diplomatic conference requested with your government.

DEADLINE FOR "SPRING 1903" ORDERS IS FRIDAY, 28 FEBRUARY 1969

With the "Fall 1903" orders (on 14 March 1969) Ragnarok A will once more be published on the same weekend as games B, C, D, and E. That should spare some of you multi-game players some postage expense, as it will me. By the way, players in this game have until the next deadline to purchase more games at $1 per game. After the "Spring 1903" moves have seen print, you will have to buy a $3 game before getting the reduced rate again.

PARIS If that slanderous statement was aimed at me, Germany, you had better retract it before I wipe you out and end, once and for all, any chance for you to make a pest of yourself.

MUNICH Germany is willing to work out a deal with any worthy ally
--- contact immediately and a good deal can be worked out.

MOSCOW The loyal cossacks have captured Austrian spies on the border of the Russian Homeland. This creates a difficult situation and the Russian Ambassador has been recalled from Vienna.

GENEVA (DWE) Bets are being made upon the length of time that John Koningkraft-Ebbing, editor of the notorious Ragnarok, will be able to avoid making cracks about the "White Russians." Two minutes seems to be the most popular choice.
