1973 CL

Winter 1900

Well, I had two requests for separate spring orders. Thanks to those who submitted spring orders--sorry you had to make all those conditionals, Walter and Dave ... I tried.

England (Blank): (FALL f swe /r/ ska). Build fleet edinburgh, fleet london.

Has: f edi, f lon, f hol, f my, f ska .

France (Stevens): No change. Has: a bel, a bur, a pic, a gas, a pie, f tyn.

Germany (Forte): (FALL a hol /r/ kie). Remove army stp. Has: a den, a mun, a ruh, a kie, f hel, f bal.

Italy (Kelly): No change. Has: a rom, a ven, f ion, f nap.

Russia (Key): No change. Has: a lvn, a mos, a vie, a boh, a tyo, f swe.

Turkey (Childers? Childers?): (FALL NBR f ion /a/). NBR. Will be one short.
 Has: a ser, a alb, a tri, f emed, f adr, f aeg.

Gentlemen, in the future, always submit even an obvious retreat. I will retreat a unit myself if it's obvious (no change, with one retreat route, or a unit listed in conditions and so). This fleet ionian would have been retreated if there had only been a route.

Michael Childers: wake up.

I have spring orders on hand for England and Germany.

The Draw: I received 3 'yes' votes and no votes from the other 3. I'll not call a 6-way draw without unanimity, explicitly stated. Yes or no with your next orders please.

1973 CK

Spring 1968

England (Peterson) a edi (h), f lon (s) FRENCH bel-nth.

Turkey (Korson): a sar-arm, a nap-aru, f on-ble, f nag-gro, f ron (s) nap-aru, f tyn-waed, f rom (h).

Italy is put into civil disorder. Ron Kelly takes over as Germany, which makes CK about number 90, eh Ron? If anyone wants to stand-by on this magazine just ask. Mr Kelly got inserted into all three of these games because he offered to stand-by and help me.

I've only seen a half-year of this game, but I'd love to know how that Russian fleet got into the adriatic!

Four calls were received at my house. I was not home to answer these calls (appropriately enough). I don't know if any of these people left their names or anything. I don't know if any of these callers, but if you ever do call, even if you don't want me to return your call, please leave your name so I at least know you tried.

NEXT DEADLINE: THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1975.

I've been told that the magazine took a week in the mails to some people (the reason for split seasons in CL). So we try a 4-week interval, which will revert to tri-weekly if things appear to improve.
