Now, retreats: English f den-ska, hel or off; a bel-hol or off;
Turkish a con-aeg or off; f aeg to smy, eas or off. (Of course both units cannot retreat to smy.)

To forestall inquiries: neither Turkish move cut support because it was not an attack from the side, but an attack from the province into which the support was given. Honest.

London: The Government of England wishes to express its sincere apologies to the Government of Germany. Britain promises to make the end of Germany mercifully quick, with the aid of her powerful allies.

Moose Factory: Say, look what that powerful ally is doing...

Fall 1904 (conditional on retreats if desired) are due May 16. Mail deadline 4:00 PM; phone 7:30 PM; but don't call from 5:00 to 6:30. (Thanks to everyone for picking up the change last issue.)
