Winter 1904 due May 23. 4:00 PM by mail, 5:00 PM or 6:30-7:30 PM by phone.

Rome: Hi England!

Moose Factory: John Ham deserves credit for surviving for four years in a basically indefensible position. John also has the dubious distinction of being the first person eliminated from a game in a Shield Press publication.

Now that Turkey has been conquered and France and Germany are almost gone, the question now arises: Who will fight whom? Or are we headed for a four-way draw? Will the established alliance lines hold?

Dalarna (1973Ndc), Spring 03: EVERYBODY SUCCEEDS!

Emperor (Mighton): f/a CoS-CoS; f/a FIS CoS.

Rebel: Vastmanstad (Ronald): a RiN s a Naa; a Naa s a RiN.

f Bra-SkS.

Loyal: Mariola (Kitching): a Spa s a Tra; a WeH-UpN; a UpN-Kob; f TrS h; a Tra h.

Norby (Hayward): f EFS-HrS; a UpH-Bri, s by A Ksr.

Shalland (Robertson): (note- Shalland's a Sta was incorrectly listed as being in UpV last season) a NSh-CeS;
a CeS-SSh; a 2Ri-Glo; f ShS-VaS; a Sta-UpV.

No retreats. Fall 03 due May 23, usual times.

Come to Minicontario!

Minicontario is a Diplomacy convention which will be held July 5-7 (Fri-Sun.) at Dunbarton High School, Pickering, Ont. There will be a multi-game Diplomacy Tournament with prizes, lectures for Novices and Experienced Players, display of Diplomacy games, meeting of IDA Canadian Region, general wargaming, and lots of unstructured gaming and people-meeting.

What does all this cost? For players, $1 Friday, $1.50 Sat. and Sun. For spectators, 50¢ Fri., 75¢ Sat. & Sun.

Accommodation is available in nearby motels ($10/night single, $12 double), campsite ($3.50/night,) or residences in Toronto ($4-$8/night).

I will be going for the entire weekend but likely won't have car space. Enquiries and applications should be sent to me. 789-5382.
