

Runestones

Issue #2

Feb. 28, 1973

IDA

Runestone is one of the few weekly publications of postal Diplomacy. It is a Shield Press publication, produced by John Leeder, Box 1606, Huntsville, Ontario Phone 789-5382.

Game fees: $2.00.

Subscription 12/$1.00. Standbys wanted, Huntsville area only.

Games will be conducted as far as possible under the Arrakis rules for postal Diplomacy.

Country Assignments (made by lot, by me.)

Austria: John Mighton, c/o Kingsway P.O., Ont. 635-1265

England: Rick Kitching, Box 1573, Huntsville, Ont. 789-7453

France: Kevin Robertson, c/o Gen. Del., Huntsville, Ont. 789-7443

Germany: Paul Monahan, Box 81, Huntsville, Ont. 789-4531

Italy: Doug Gruber, c/o Gen. Del., Huntsville, Ont.

Russia: Doug Kayward, Box 291, Huntsville, Ont.

Turkey: John Ham, Box 1822, Huntsville, Ont. 789-7164

As you can see, I am missing several phone numbers. They're essential for this game, so get them to me, and to the other players, as soon as possible. When phoning me, please don't do so after 10:30 PM. Also---I don't guarantee to be home at any given time! And I don't guarantee that anybody answering the phone will be able to interpret your orders correctly!

Spring 1901 orders due here: 3:30 PM EST, Wed., Mar. 7 (when I pick up my mail.)

Other points to discuss:

1. A few people have suggested a postal game of Dalarna, to be carried in this zine. OK... If six people are interested, I'll start, at no extra cost, a section of Dalarna. First come, first served!
2. Somebody suggested that, if this game goes past June, we'll run into snags with people away on summer courses, jobs, vacations, etc. As I see it, we have several options open to us: -suspend operations for the summer; -assign countries to temporary or permanent standbys; -go to a three-week deadline for the summer (maybe the fall, too, if some of our players wind up in University.) Myself, I favour the third course of action, if this situation arises. Your opinions?
