

It seems that the Calgary mails are in a backlog situation once again, so I'll resume my previous policy in such situations, namely, that if a game has missing orders I'll delay adjudications by one week.

So, let's look at the files and see how many games make it out this week...

Game 1977AChf, Fall 47 B.C.: "LORD POMPEY!" GASPED THE COURIER, "I'VE (Triumvirate) RIDDEN ALL THE WAY TO SCYTHIA TO GIVE YOU NEWS!"

Draw vote results: 3 Yes, 1 no vote. Some people can't read... Will the missing person please register a vote with next season's orders (provided there is a next season. Let's find out...)?

 Pom: kor, ath, lar, epi, pel, thr, scy, khe, dac, per, ant*, sid, pny, arm, pon, cap, gal, phr, cyp, eph, nic, cre, phi, jer, nab (25) Wins!
 Sen: rom*, ~~xxx~~, sar, ill, ~~xxx~~, bru? (4 or 5) no place to build, even if retreat made.

Note that Thr was listed twice in Pompey's centres last season, so he in fact had only 23 centres.

Retreats take place chronologically before the centre count, so the two retreats may be made if the players desire; they affect the centre count. If nothing is received by April 21, I'll assume you waive the retreat.

Reatia: If I ruled Rome I would change the calendar so that all would know Spring followed Winter. Now, it is too obvious, so of course some do not notice.

For reasons too complicated to explain, but having to do with St. Patrick's Night at the Irish-Canadian Club, stats will appear next issue. CHIMO!
