Budapest: The Austro-Hungarian Emperor, having unveiled his projected Italian attack, has announced his declaration of war, and troop mobilizations are under way. Formally keeping with all terms of peace, von Nighton will no longer tolerate Italian mistrust, and with its proposed attack Italy has forced him to take up arms to assure the continued existence of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Moose Factory: Russia didn't really lose strength, like I said in the headline. I forgot Norway was neutral. Another lucid Shield Press headline!

Huntsville: Please don't eliminate France and Turkey yet, guys. Wait till after they pay their two dollars!
