Diplomatic Game (1902-1903): Winter 1903: NORDLAND INVASION FAILING!

Austria (Hausman): Built a fort, has a tyr, a bar, f bar, a sil, a bar, a red.
 England (Kinnaird): Built a fort, has a bar, f bar, f bar, a red.
 France (Rutherford): Received a bar, removed f bar; has a bar, a bar,
 Germany (Monahan): Built a bar; has a den, f bar, a bar, a sil, a par.
 Italy (Gandy): Built f bar; has f space, a mar, a vee, f adr, f tyr.
 Russia (Engstrand): Received a bar; built a bar; has f bar, a fin, f bla, f am, a red.
 Turkey (Ham): Has f bar, f bar, a bar.

Paris: Kaiser Paul von Habsburg, the IOCETOC (Imperial Commander Of Everything That Grows On) of Germany, Denmark, Holland and parts of France, has given his allies (Italy and Scotland) a Royal tour of his newest prize, Paris. The sites include the Eiffel Tower, Le Louvre and the Cathedral of Notre Dame, during a visit.

Moscow: Received the sealed "Green Riffle."

Berlin: After much debate of how the Allies held a conference to decide the fate of their German colonies, Russia and Austria-Hungary. Due to incessant requests for help from Turkey and reports of the inhuman treatment of the people (they are forced to manufacture ski-bindings (and wax) for the Austria-Hungarian winter-skiing team) the Allies have been forced to agree against the above mentioned enemy in the name of humanity. The ports of North Russia and Austria-Hungary have been or will be blockaded and all raw materials from the Allies destined for these countries will be shipped to Turkey or Allied weather stations in Iceland and North Africa.

Spring 1903 orders due April 11, same time as usual.
