

Errata

Issue One
31 December 1988

"The number one subzine for apologies and excuses!"

Greetings one and all! I do hope everyone has had a very happy holiday season and trust that the new year will be a joyous and prosperous one for all. It is shaping up to be quite an exciting one for me and I can only hope that it will be the same for all of you.

Now I know you are probably asking, "What the hell is this?" Well, as the subtitle explains this is my [sub]zine of apologies and excuses. Hopefully this will be the one and only issue that I put out. The reason I'm sending this out is to let everyone know that there will be no issue #6B. A hectic holiday pace, medical problems, exams, personal problems, and just about everything else that could go wrong has conspired against me and kept me from finding the time to type up the lettercol section of #6. Instead, I'll be throwing it all into a huge seventh issue.

Now I don't want anyone to think that this is a precursor to a fold. Read my lips, NO WAY! I'm here to stay, like it or not; I'll be plaguing your mailboxes for years to come. About halfway through exams I was hit hard by an overall malaise and really couldn't get myself to do much of anything. The good news is that I've put all of that behind me and plan to get everything back on schedule by 20 January 1989 [when issue #7 is due out]. I'll be taking a five day ski trip with a bunch of fraternity brothers which should do wonders for me in terms of relaxation. I just wanted everyone to know that there will be no #6B. I do, however, encourage everyone to look over the past issues of TS and, if there is anything that strikes your fancy, send me a little something for #7. To make it really great I need your help.

Dates to remember: "BaMbuti" and "Ik" orders due 18 January 1989; "BaNgwana" moves due 16 January 1989; "Khoi-San" orders/revisions due 11 January 1989. The novice game is almost filled, we need only one or two more players. Issue #7 will be go to press after mail pickup 20 January 1989.

I'm also sending out with this little apology sheet the reader poll. I ask that you be as honest and as open as humanly possible. All answers are confidential and will not be discussed with anyone other than between you and me. Got a gripe? Tell me! I need to know if I'm to make the zine better. Enjoy something in particular? Tell me! I can use the egoboo plus I'll try to include more of it. I'll be publishing my completed poll in issue #7 or #8 depending on how soon everyone responds. Really, I ask that all of you take the time to fill it out and send it back to me. It doesn't take all that long and it will help get to know y'all better; I'm also hoping that it may stimulate those who don't contribute all that much to send a little something along, be it a list of favorite songs, beers, positions, what-have-you.

Well, I guess that's about all for now. Again, I apologize for the timeliness problem I've been having lately but I assure you that things will be picking up soon and will get back on schedule. Have patience with me for about three more weeks then jump on my case again.

Once again, best wishes for the new year from me to you and yours. Remember to fill out the poll, wrap it up with a letter or list, and mail it back to this lowly publisher. Take care.

Actual Handwritten Correspondence To You [maybe]

Larry,

Here you go, just a little notice to keep you updated on how things stand. Could you do me the favor of filling out the survey and sending it back? Thank and take care.

Best,

