

SMUT*

JANUARY 8, 1972

Happy 1972 to you all!! This is SMUT* #3. I hope that everyone has sufficiently recovered from their "Happy" Holidays. This magazine of supposed Postal DIPLOMACY* format is edited and published by Peter Weber, who is likely to be found most anywhere but does make his home as DIPLOMATIC ADDRESS: 417 East Hatcher Rd #2, Phoenix, Arizona 85020. There are also British and French versions of DIPLOMACY, don't believe me though, but that may be because I have been a changed shortly w/ new carrier pigeons!!

In this issue is Games 1971-ADP, 1971-EF, the beginning of game 1971-Yea-ha!, Section C of the houserules, an article about the New Diplomacy Organization, and the usual other (yuk) stuff. Actually, this will be a short issue...but remember, it's quality, not quantity, that counts!??

Game openings: Although Game 4 is almost filled, there are still plenty of openings available in game 5 (two registrants there). Tadueta is overwhelming (almost) responsible for "The Reader's Big Change" which might just open a 6th regular ordinary everyday Diplomacy game. Meanwhile, the black propaganda game is almost filled and should start next issue....be watching for dat. By the way, the next issue should be out with the new page 800. (ognized by some and not...) virona JANUARY EHT djiw opeo Finances and other such other uncool things: The game fee for all games in SMUT*, plus a discount going out to members of IFW, NFGBDD, TDA, The new Organization (unnamed as of yet), and the 99th Bengal Lancers. In addition, if you pay $1500, you can be knocked off the game fee in any game(s) entered after the first 10 games. If you do this, however, any time. Subscriptions are $100 for 12 months, $18 for 6 months, $12 for 3 months. Diplomacy related items, e.g., Vassals, etc. will be sold.

Last Issue I asked if anyone out there would like to be a Standby...though I have had a good amount of responses this, ATWA is still accepting requests to be placed via forms of mail-in registration as a standby, where requestee must be either a subscriber, player in a game, or a trader. Standbys will not be assigned to countries with less than 3 units and it costs $100 per year. If you are interested, send a self-addressed envelope to: SMUT*, P.O. Box 200, 1000 W. 20th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90007. If you are interested in becoming a Standby, you can do so by filling out the form below. Please attach a stamp. Standbys are not guaranteed to receive any mail, but if they do, they will be informed. This is a suggested reading for a 1000 word response to the following: I think the reader needs to indicate one thing, however, that is the name of the organization: THE DIPLOMACY HOUSE RULES, you can get them from the Postmaster, 6000 S. Central Ave., Suite 100, Phoenix, AZ 85008. The rules for November 1971 which are now released. The form above the address rulebook is distinguished a bit, and should be attached to Section A of the houserules. If you do not have the complete set of houserules and should like to know about it, as possible, contact me at my address: 417 East Hatcher Rd #2, Phoenix, AZ 85020.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND OTHER THINGS THAT HAVE NO PLACE TO GO:

Who has Game openings besides me? Well: ~~John J. Boardman~~

Stan Wrobel-JASTRZAB REPORT. 7 Poland Village Blvd, Poland, Ohio, 44514

All you Poles out there ought to like this one! Stan's a good guy.

Rod Walker-WILE 'N' WORRY! 4719 Felton St., San Diego, Ca. 92116

Another Pandemonium Publications. See me do another disappearing act!! This is a revived Zine but Rod will breath a good deal of life into it.

Dr. John Boardman-GRAUSTARK. 234 East 19th St., Brooklyn, NY. 11226

Oldest and one of the best. John may have filled his last game by now but standby positions are available. I'm sure.

Brenton Ver Ploeg-PLAYPUSS PIE. 520 Parker Ave., #202, San Francisco, Ca. 94118

A Zine newer than SMUT* and probably has better spelling and less errors. WHO IS GLOMPY? If you care, find out!

Gads, there are a lot of others. I have listed here are only the ones that trade. Wait!! Here's some more: (er, two more have signed over) I was in addition to SMUT*

Leonard Laskorska-Magazine DEMONHOUSE & NEOPATIE. 1806 N. Richmond, Chicago, Ill. 60647. Don has Novice and open games to fill so give the guy a break!

John Mensinger-WORLD NEWS AND WAR REPORT. 1320 Magnolia Ave., Modesto, Ca. 95350

John to merge with THE JOURNAL shortly...watch this space.

Anybody else? Anyone who needs anything mentioned need only say something. TURN

For all you out there who may be interested in playing ORGANICALLY postally, there is Joe Antosiek (3637 Arden Ave., Brookfield, Ill. 60513) who is getting up some games. Last issue I said that Joe passed up a chance at a local Apartment....Joe wants everyone to know that the girl (female? ~~easy~~. I get the idea!) was fatter than he was homely, or something like that.

Burton Labudde is busy with ANTARES, a large magazine devoted only to rating system. ANTARES is a monthly and the subscription is $1 back Miy 1972. It should be worth it! Burton's address is 146 Ringback Maine 04972. He ed team set up super

If you are anywhere near Michigan (or anywhere in the world for that matter), you might be interested in picking up SOUL (Stones You Bottom Of A SICK Tank). This new magazine (?) is published and/or edited by Merv Baratta (157 State Street, Holland Michigan, 49423) and features the Voice of Soul and other neat things. Subs are 14 for $1.50 and there may even be game openings.

The bestest deal in Diplomacy may be offered by SOUL (see above). SOUL has a large assortment of magazines by Jerry Poetry & Pipe Publications. Contact SOUL (Box 1222, 1960 La-

San Diego, Ca., 92102) has a great package deal and also puts out a kind special Zine with a name too long to print here due to the length of the paper (it's 14x35 or 16x36 or whatever), and has to be short. Funniest thing around is that painting about it makes you think I am Jerry Poetry (406, 24th Street, Staten Island, New York), yet meanwhile, *put* put* the same amount of funniness enter into it, making it one of the most ridiculous (but good), if both, times I have seen it. Should have some openings off soon I think. Sometimes I wonder what's up about this place, before most of us have never even heard of it. SOUL knows how things are going and you won't be afraid to speak. By the way, Mark Vermark is starting up. I expect he makes his home at Airport Beach but his actual address is 520 Park Crescent, 11 Pickering, Ontario, Canada. Watch this space...

get off

Turn to you will to Page 402 of the 1972 World Almanac. Looking under Catholic Dioceses you will see that a Bishop Aux. for Brooklyn is John J. Boardman. Amazing, but true?

About tapes: Yes, If you get the chance to send a Cassette recording of yourself, your moves, you pressreleases or whatever, please do so. Making tapes are so much more fun to make than longletters that require slow typing people like me to sit for hours at a hot typewriter.

NOW, HOW ABOUT DEM GAMES, WHATEVER?

True to form, the Polish army, looking warfully at their compatriots, tried to march into Vienna last Friday. Their commander feigned astonishment when told he was actually in Galicia, and said he'd crossed the border into Austro-Hungarian territory. Since the Austro-Hungarian Army has not yet been mobilized, no resistance was offered to the hapless Pollacks. A swift kick will be offered to them if they don't get their young boids out of Galicia soon (meaning this winter); when Pollacks move in, the property values go down, and already whole blocks of "For Sale" signs have appeared in the cities along their route of march.

Berlin (July 22)--Further news about the Great Feast of Ulric Walker have been released by the Dept. of Cultural Affairs. To commemorate the event, a re-creation of the feast by this great german will be undertaken. This will take the form of a race through the Black Forest. All of Germanies allys are invited to enter a man in this competition. The rules of the race are as follows:

- the winner will be the first to emerge from the other side of the forest.
- the winner must enter or undertake all seven assigned tasks and win a majority
- to complete their tasks, the competitors must carry, forage or otherwise obtain the necessary ingredients. No outside intervention will be tolerated.
- The tasks are to drink a barrel of Löwenbräu, serve tea and crumpets every day at four during the contest, make a cheese souffle, win a balalaika contest, win a match of Greco-Roman Wrestling, build a chapel (to be blessed by the Pope) to honor Saint Gertrude and finally each contestant must join a secret Serbian nationalist society.

Berlin (Aus 7)--The Dept. of Cultural Affairs announced today that entries have been received from all the great powers for the great race. The race has been schelduled to start on January 1, 1992. Further details later.

Marseilles (Sept 7)--Rise up! You revolutionaries! The main reason being that when the army came many houses & establishments had to be closed. The unemployment was too much for the local citizenry to take.

Sügarenspies (Sept 21)--Queen Anne, still admiring the newest object addition to her antique collection, a mud bowl from the Spanish royal pottery, turned briefly to comment on the world situation and "We hear in the Grand Republic-Monarchy-Democracy that there is going to be a great race. Why wasn't we invited to enter a contestant? Oh, by the way, Peace and Love to you all!!!"

 Dethardt: ~~England~~ ~~Germany~~ ~~Austria~~ ~~Turkey~~ ~~England~~
 Hagelshaw: ~~England~~ ~~Germany~~ ~~Austria~~ ~~Turkey~~ ~~England~~

Three players received their first choice. Where a tie occurred, as with Turkey, & England, I flipped a coin to determine who would receive that country. The lesser received the next highest unclaimed country on his list. There seems to be an overwhelming preference for England and Turkey.

THE NEW DIPLOMACY ORGANIZATION

Well, at last, the new organization for the Diplomacy player is taking shape. Received just the other day was the Proposed Interim Constitution for this organization (which is unnamed, but referred to as DipOrg) and I and many other publishers have been asked to publicize and comment on it.

Why the need for a Diplomacy organization now? Let's jump back about 9 months, or so to March of 1971. The original idea of a player oriented Diplomacy organization was first established in March into a firm organization by a small group of New York City friends under the leadership of Ed Birsan. After Birsan's resignation of the seemingly organized Diplomacy Association, as it was called, the organization fell into the hands of John Beshara. About July, this Diplomacy organization began to teeter as internal and external forces piled up on an ingenerate and irresponsible Beshara. Because of his inability to fulfill the earlier promises made by TDA (the Diplomacy Association) and his conflicts with almost everyone else, a movement was launched by Larry Peary and Bill Bupash to either take Beshara out of power as head of TDA or to get Beshara to change his ways. Since that time (August), many things happened, all unsuccessful, except for the beginning of this new organization. On YSD, the original TDA is still around with Beshara as head, but it is not widely accepted. I have no time to go into this further.

Well, the man most responsible for getting this new organization off the ground is Bob Johnson (Box 134, Whippny, NJ 07981). He has constructed the interim constitution and will head this new organization until elections are held. Basically, this new one will be just like TDA, as it will be doing the same things, but it will have free elections, no secrecy hopefully, and will have a more diverse power structure. Almost anyone that knows of Diplomacy can join, and the dues are much the same as in TDA. There will be an Executive council to take care of the operation of the organization, which includes the Board of Directors for the interim will be President, Vice-President, Editor, and regional secretaries, but post interim, the organization will have a written, defined constitution. Some of the things that will be in it: A proposed constitution is promised by 1972 to replace the interim one. $32. This will be a visit.

Because of the space limitations in this issue, I can't go into a whole lot of detail. There will be more about this further in subsequent issues. Meanwhile, I would like to hear any initial reactions to this new organization or anything you may wish to say about the old one. Seven 1001 will not be able to fit

Well, this raps up another issue, complete with mistakes and often poor repro. Next Issue-The Readers Big Chance, again, game 4, the BP game, perhaps game 5, results of games 1971 DU & 1971 EF, more about the new DipOrg, and other topics.
