STENCH!! is a sine put out by Herb Roberts and wife Gonnie, every third Sunday. It carries ORIGINS, and variants of Diplomacy. I have six confirmed people in the Youngstown game, cost is sub and a $2GD. The only games are MOW/DOSE for the first/75¢ there after, for 10/15¢/$1 for DOSE 75¢/91.25, others $1.25/$1.75. In July these prices shall go up for sure! These are the lowest prices anywhere! Also Opened as a Michigan Diplomacy game, by R. Beane. I believe that I have 4 confirmed for this. Rules are in this issue as well as more details.

I have the person interested in a modified Foundation game. I'll have the rules and will let you know more about this game.

The deadline is 23-3-73 for the spring 36 moves, press: LONDON: Prime Minister Chamberlain understands the United States position and wishes to co-operate fully with the younger power. The Minister feels coordination of the western powers will put down the German violation of Versailles Treaty. He tells the people that another tragedy like the World War of 1914 will not occur. The British people have placed their full faith behind the Minister.

ZOOCHICH: Reporters for this tiny neutral country have been plagued by the fact that, they cannot get close enough for an interview with Chamberlain. It seems that they don't have enough faith to get past all the guards and police that surround the Minister from harm.

MICHIGAN DIPLOMACY

Designed February 1973 by Robert Heasecker. There are no restrictions placed on the use of this game; copying of any or all aspects of it is permitted and welcomed. Ditto-reproduction being the unpredictable art that it is, may not do an adequate job of representing the map included elsewhere in this publication. If you wish a high-quality xerox copy on 8 1/2 x 11 paper, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me (8758 Grant Street, Montague, Mich. 49437) and the map will be forwarded to you by return mail.

Rules

1. Unless otherwise superseded, regular Diplomacy rules will be in effect.

2. There are seven major political divisions, and since subdivisions of Michigan should not be called "countries" they will be referred to as "powers". The seven powers are listed below together with their constituent provinces. An asterisk (*) indicates a supply center, and location of the initial placement of armies and fleets are designated by (A) and (F) respectively.

BENZONIA: *Cad(A); *Fra(F); Lel; One; *Tra(A)
MARQUETTE: *Esc(F); Iro; *Ish(A); Man; *Mun(A)
OTSEGO: Cha; *Che(F); *Gay(A); Mac; *Pos(A)
SAGINAW: Bay; *Pnc(F); Mid; *Mou(A); *Zil(A)
TAQUAMENON: Nau; Pnc; *StI(A); *Sau(F); *Whi(A)
WAYNE: Ann; *Det(A); *Jac(A); Mlf; *Por(F)
ZEELAND: GrR; Hol; *Kzo(A); *Mus(F); *New(A)

3. Since Michigan Diplomacy does not recreate an historical situation, it would be simpler to use standard Diplomacy season-year designations for the moves. The game begins with the Spring 1901 moves.

4. There are 25 neutral provinces, 12 of which are supply centers. This brings the supply center total to 33. To win, a power must control 17 of these at the completion of a Winter turn.

5. No movement "off the board" is allowed, either by direct order or through retreat.

6. Armies and fleets are prohibited from entering: a) any and all islands; and b) the unnamed Canadian province directly east of Port Huron.

7. Chicago and Coldwater are not adjacent provinces, and therefore movement in one turn from one to the other is not allowed.

Well you guessed it, I'm going to run a game of this in STENCH!! The cost will be a sub, and a $2 GD. I have four people that are interested already. I'm asking all those for this first game to be interested in writing press and be a NOW member.

If there is enough response for this game, YG will run a game of it. Costs etc will have to be found out from Paul Wood.

The great thing about this game, is that the press that have been coming out in BOAST will be able to find a better place home in this game. Being all NOW members there should be a good bit of jesting, and humor with in the press. There will be a $1 prize for the best press in this game, and anything will go, including Black press.

Lew, you have another Miller # to assign for this game. Ok guys go at it!!!

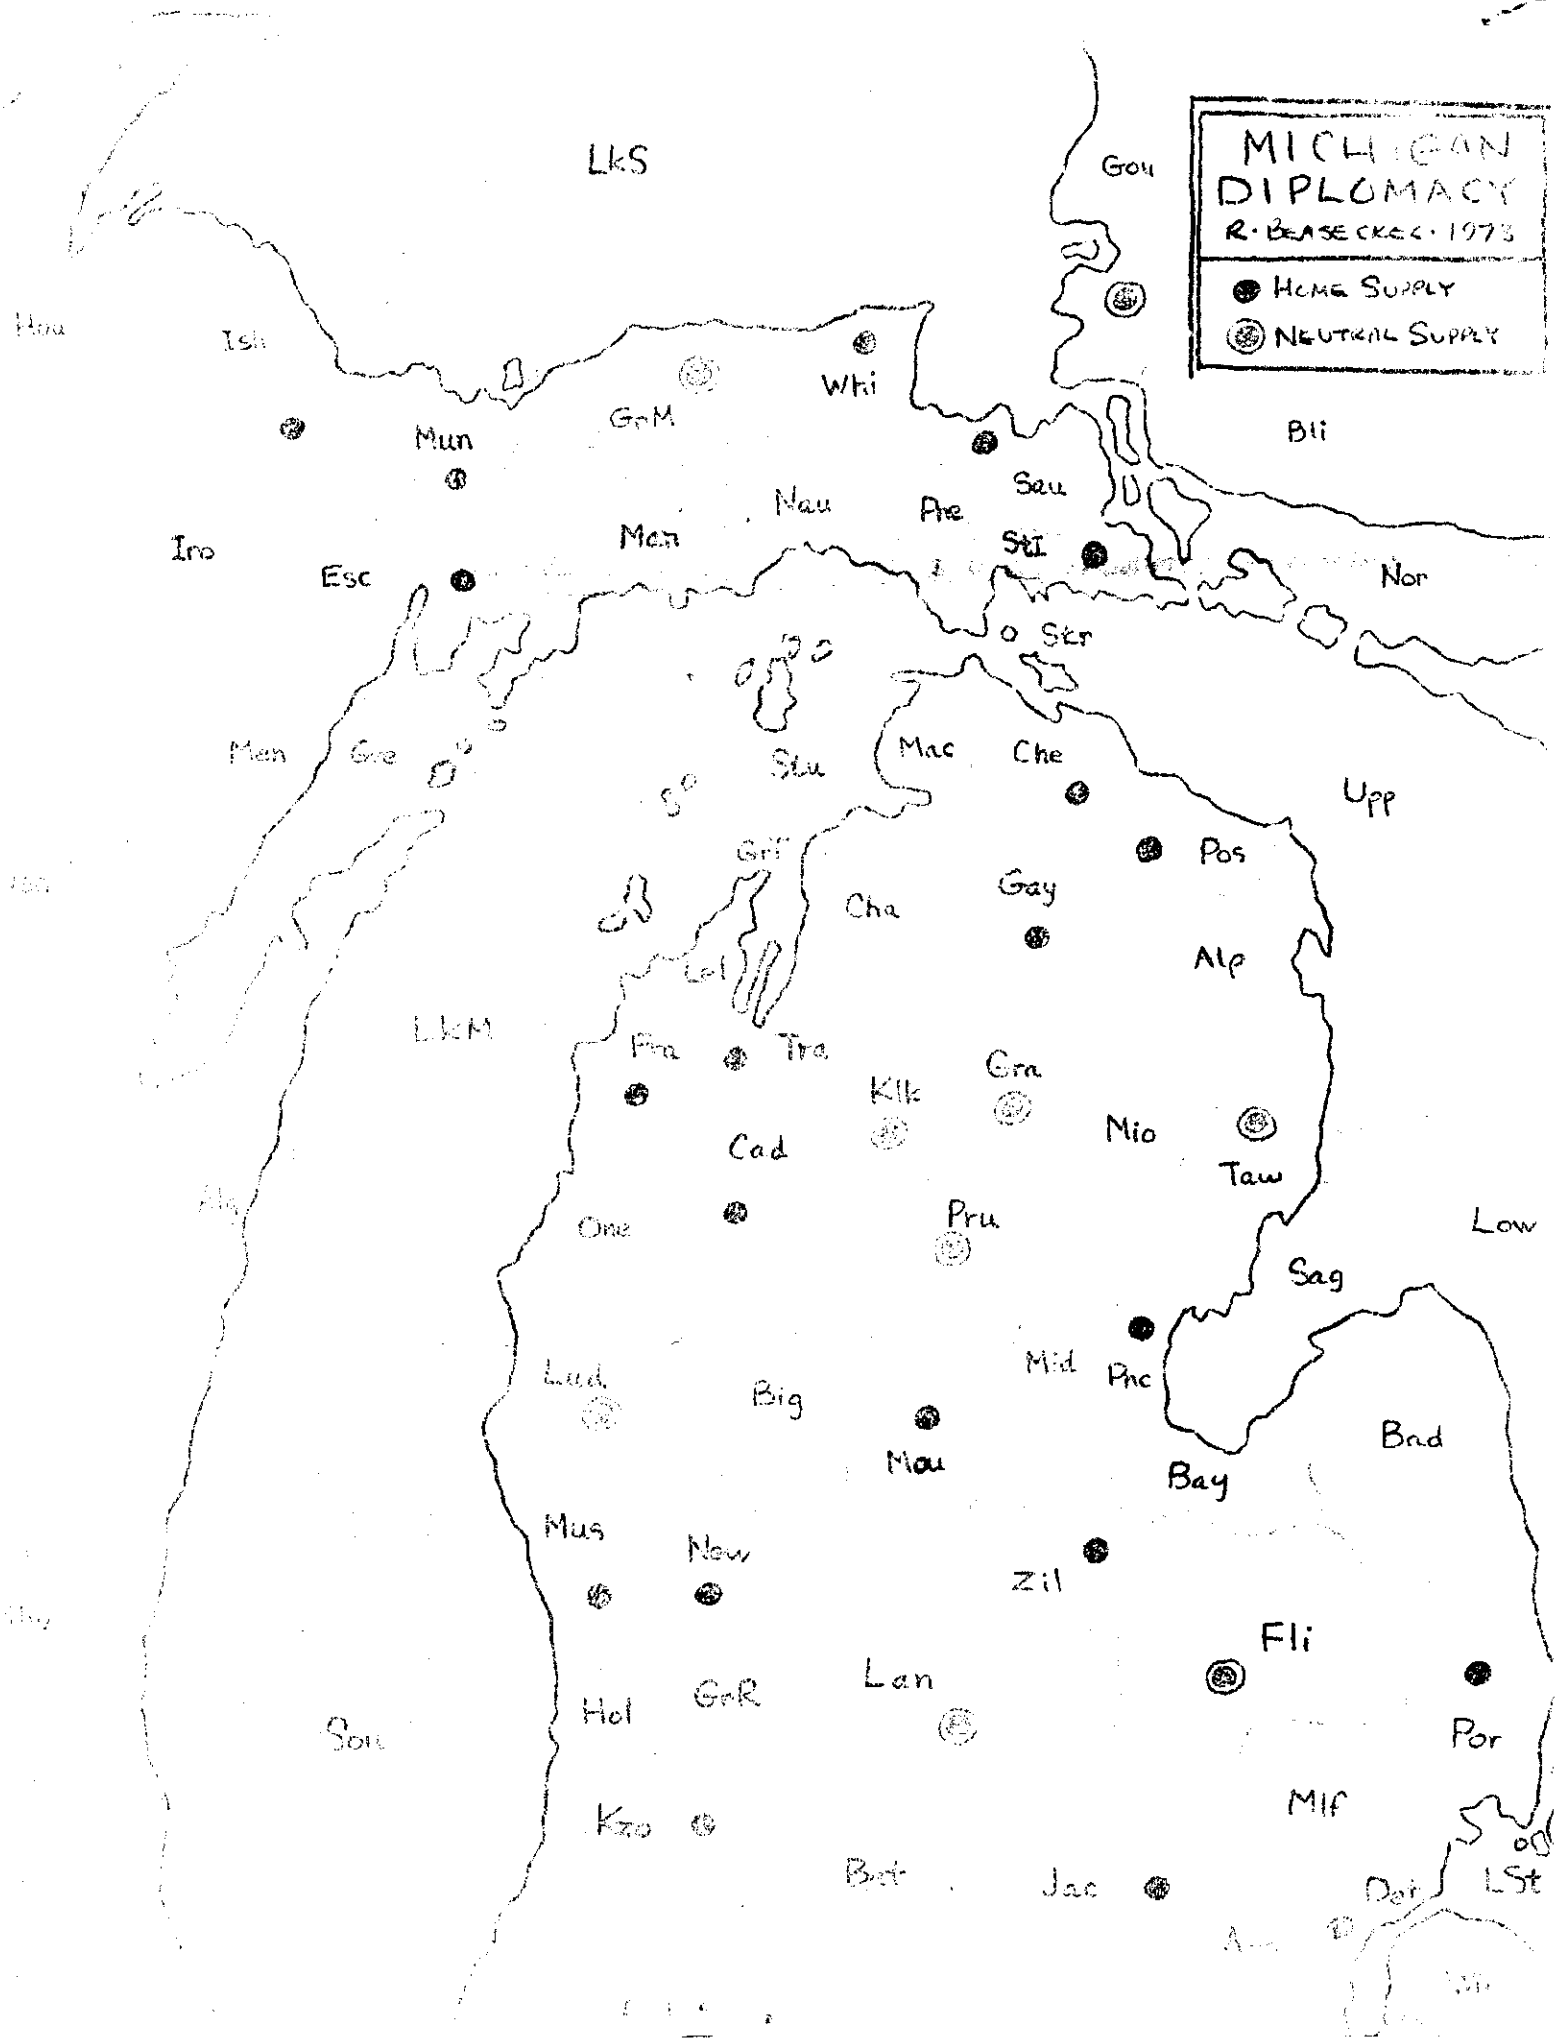

Even if I know you want please write again so I'll not foul up!

The MGR should be out at the end of the Month. JVDG and BJW have finally gotten their Lineo that they had on order for 3-6 months! I'm sure that everyone will be looking forward to this 3rd big issue.

From Paul Wood, I've been told that Len Scensny will edit the next MGR (#4). He lives at 317 Linwood, Rochester, Li. 48063. Articles intended for #4 (not already!) should, I guess go to him. Changes of editor, if any, will appear in BOAST.

Press: POSAIK: Professor Entwhistle sat in his study holding one strange objects which had been found on the boat. It was an oval shaped object made of some crystal substance. He stared deep into the object trying to figure it out when he began to hear noises. Then he began to see movement inside the object. It was men fighting, he could hear them, the sounds of men crashing upon one another. They seemed to be larger than normal men with some kind of protection for their heads. When all of a sudden, he felt the pressure of someone large standing over him. Quickly he looked up to see his wife Agnes, all 6'6" of her. The only woman in history to be kicked off a roller derby team for being violent. "Herbert, what are you doing in here wasting your time, when you could be watching a good football game. These Miami boys are just beating the shit out of Washington. But here you sit, playing around with some stupid ball."

Football game, Entwhistle then realized that the light from the television had been reflecting in the object he was holding, and that is what he say. "Give me that thing Herbert." Agnes grabbed the object from Entwhistle and threw it in the corner of the room breaking it. But as it broke a gas rose from the pieces. Agnes fell to the floor, breaking several tiles as she fell, unconscious. Entwhistle rushed over to the pieces to try and see what happened but he soon swooned and fell.

When he awoke he was standing in the bow of a boat, an old boat, in fact it seemed like the one that he had discovered in the ocean. Hearing noises in back of him, he turned and gasped.

Press PARIS After apparent confusion in France, Hlm has finally with an iron hand, placed things back to normal with Prime Minister Chamberlain's help. Hlm would like to thank Chamberlain by not attempting to throw his political influence out of France. Cooperation must be maintained by western powers.

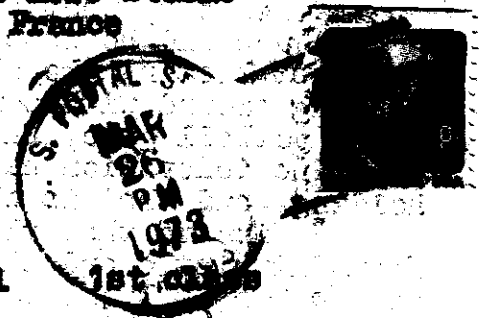

ZOORICH: It has been noted that as Hlm made things more stable German forces were slipping across the border into France disguised as pack rats.
