A bit about some of these guys. First Bob, and Don Jousma are cousins that live within 25 miles of each other. Both of them have NEVER DIPPED before. Robert Beadecker and John Post are old friends. Paul Wood, Tim Tilson, and Tom Kistler all know each other. Paul Wood is a top notch etc. Tim is a college student ROTC and minor diplomatic lessons. Tom Kistler is a skinny senior at Ludington Hi., Bob Jousma works at times while his wife sits home painting his Civil War mini's. Don is a School teacher.
Robert is a Librarian at GVSU, and John POST is new to me. I hope that all this will give you ideas for press releases etc.
There is a $1 prize for the best press.

Anyway go to it guys, and don't let the blood spill
on the carpet.

ON THE GRAND VALLEY OMEPOS on April 29 there will be Civil War mini's and other goodies. It will take place from noon or so until later. FOR $2 Huron Hall.

On May 20 in the evenings there will be some good old Diplomacy played along with other good stuff. This also will be at GVSU.

If you got the time, we got the games.

Lew Pulsipher will be assigning a Miller # to the Dippy game until then please refer to this game as Mi-L. I would like to note it is the first game of Michigan Dippy to start, thus we beat the TO and their game out of the blocks.

Press: POSAICK (STENCH) Prof Entwhistle watches in amazement as the tall Woodie comes from deep in the woods. As it approaches Entwhistle is filled with terror with each step that the creature takes. At the distance it did not look too big, but as it approached he could see that it was taking on giant proportions, much like his wife.

"It was but 200 feet from him now and he could see that the creature was really big. As tall as the trees all around him, this creature stopped in front of Entwhistle. He looks down at the Prof and lets out a cry..." WHAT the hell did you wake me up for.!!!???"

"I didn't realize it at the time when I blew the horn, uhhhhh, but I'm sorry...what can I say?" Entwhistle was shaking in his boots.

"There is no reason to explain to me, oh Master," Said the creature. "I'm yours to command, I'm a giant Woodie from the great forest of Dobot. Command me and I shall do."

"There was a sense of events that Entwhistle never even thought of, he was in complete command of his surroundings for the first time in his life. Not only that, but he would not have to walk anywhere from now on." Woodie, please pick me up..."

From the backside the great sound of KILLERBLADE comes forth from the sea.

If you like other wargames, maybe Forced March, or Swabbers might be for you. Forced March has an opening in Strat I XVI, and other games for multi-commanders. Swabbers has a Jutland Tourny open with $10 first prize, and deals with NAVAL WARGAMES.
