AND THE

Vol. II, No. 5

April 10, 1977

A Vast Wilderness Publication

Diplomacy is convincing your new ally that your five Calhamer points were from 10 two-way draws.

This issue is more skimpy than most issues I find myself apologizing for. But this one I have a good excuse for. I am now in the sixth day of withdrawal from smoking(Yay!) and have discovered that my brain is so used to compensating for the effect of nicotine, that without nicotine I don't seem to be able to think at all. I trust this condition will not last forever, but until it passes, I sure feel spacey.

I am a day late in typing this because the postal Disservice didn't feel like delivering the results for Leviathan on time. However, don't let all this keep you from recommending this zine to your friends. I still have the three game openings I had last time. My attempts to get new enlistees met with total failure.

All players should be getting a new copy of the Feudal Code(House Rules) with this issue. There have been abuses of the system in the past, and because I am such a good person, I have let you get by with it. But in the interests of not making this one zine my entire postal hobby activity, I am going to insist that you read the rules and abide by them

That's enough rambling for this time. Once the smoke clears my brain I will be doing better and will get back to quasi-normal.

Constantinople;(Spring, 1906) The people of Constantinople are rejoicing at their unexpected liberation. Last week, Generalissimo Isch Turnip, D.N.P., T.U.X., R.S.T. delivered a glowing tribute to his Italian friends and announced that he was hoping that the peace offers from his former enemies, Austria and Russia, were sincere. This week, he has announced that the Turkish army was completely surrounded by friends of the highest order and he feared imminent annihilation. He has asked the Germans to take over the Russian port facilities in Sevastopol to build a fleet and evacuate his army. There are rumors that foreign assassins are being hired to kill other foreign assassins and many double deaths are occurring.

Constantinople;(Jan. 15, 1906) The Turkish ambassador to Delphi asked the oracle whether the delay of Spring boded well for the Turkish army.

"Hsssssssss," replied the inflatable dolly, which was his sacrifice.

"Please explain yourself. Are you hissing at the separation of seasons, or the puny size of the army which can only offer such a gift to your Majesty, or is it my demeanor that you don't like, or do you not like my question..."

Something prompted the Oracle to reply. Perhaps because the Turk wasn't going to take hiss for an answer.

"I hate Turks," she said, and was about to continue when he picked up his dolly and ran away.

VIENNA ( Reuters): Today the esteemed Hans Vohler revealed numerous facts about the Human Fly throughout history. The first known one was Icarus who achieved such a high speed that he broke his neck on the sky. Tarzan is said to have some fly blood in him, thereby accounting for many of his feats. Spiderman, through a complex chain of suppression and reaction formation, managed to conceal the fact that he was a fly, much to his relief. The legendary Czar Rauscher-see 1976R-has also been implicated by his recent wall-climbing fits. By far the most famous flies are the Turks of Medusan Times who were always in season and none could swat them completely to death. The most astonishing finding of Vohler was that a full 95% of human flies were undone in bed.

ITALY: (No dateline) The Italian Empress shall never rest until the Austrian hoods are pushed back to their homeland.

ITALY-FRANCE: With your neutrality and the greatest respect, we shall battle on with Austria.

ITALY TO ALL OTHER COUNTRIES: Thank you for your CARE packages, Red Cross help and sympathy cards - they were gratefully accepted. But we are on the rise. Also Italy is willing for an Austrian Russian draw.

1976BM Press--

Russia: (No dateline) Fyodr Roszak, Ambassador of the Russian People's Government to Norway, once again praised the ability of the English to rule Scandinavia despite the presence of Russian troops. Roszak explained that the Russian occupation of Scandinavia was necessary because of the incompetence of the English military forces in their battle against the French. He claimed that the disappearance of British forces in Edinburg and the English Channel further proved the ineffectiveness of the British war machine.
