A Vast Wasteland Publication

Diplomacy is expressing to a new mother your opinion that all newborns are noisy, irritating, smelly, wet, red and wrinkled as: "Isn't he cute."

The big news, is the rapid approach of Origins. So far, Steve McLendon, I, Lee Kendter, Jim Yerkey, Dan Mathias, Jack Brawner are going to be there with Jeff Richmond, Roscoe McPherran, Fred Hyatt and OrenPhipps are possibles. Mark Berch will be there but doesn't intend to participate. Oh, yes, Dennis Agosta will be there too. It's at Widener College, outside Philadelphia, June 22, 23, 24. If you are interested in attending, let me know. I still have some pre-registration forms. Pre-registration deadline is June 1, so let me hear from you now. I wouldn't let not being pre-registered keep me from coming if you decide to later on. You can usually find someone who will let you sleep on their floor. Better bring a sleeping bag.

There will be a meeting of the IDA. I am not presently a member, but I am interested in joining and getting the IDA started again as a hobby-wide service organization. There are a lot of individual efforts that can use publicity through a central agency, and a lot of activities that need to be done. If you are interested in seeing the IDA become something more than a boost to the officers' egos. Look me up at Origins.

And the local news is that my openings have ended with the filling of my latest game, The Ghost. Also, The Banshee, 1978CO & The Changeling, 1976IJ finish their runs in this issue, both with Russian wins. So far, 4 games have ended in these pages with wins, three Russian and one Austrian. What's the matter with the corner powers ?

And, I have been negotiating with Dale Kemper to write a regular column on aspects of miniature wargaming and topics other than Diplomacy. I have asked him to start on a very basic level, so those of us not already into these activities can find out how to get into them and whether they're for us. More in the future....

SAINT GEORGE SPEAKS

Dave Crockett

Mr. Crockett has been the subject of much writing in Dragon and the Lamb. He is out to beat Walter Buchanan's record of 7 wins, a 2 way draw and a second out of 9 games. Mr. Crockett eliminated me in the one game we played together. I did not consider it much of my business if he wanted to beat Walt's record. So why am I mentioning him now? Friday, May 4, 1979 Dave Crockett called me. He told me that if I didn't get in touch with Steve and get Steve to stop publicizing the questionable things Dave is doing to set this record, Dave would watch for any game I signed up for, which Steve also signed up for, and write every player in the game and tell these players that Steve and I engage in pre-game alliances - a statement which is not true.

I don't like threats, although I do not doubt that Crockett intends to carry this one out. In fact, I signed up for a game in Western Star Dippy, which Steve also signed up for. We wanted to play a game together since we were not in any game together at the time. Mr. Crockett, although he was not a player in the game, wrote at least one other player that Steve and I were allied. Before the game had started! I am getting tired of Dave Crockett interfering in my games. Especially since, as he admits, I have done nothing to him.

But in the course of this conversation, the subject of 1978FK came up. In Everything 40/41 the following line-up is listed for 1978FK: Against the Odds. Craig Reges. A-Andy Tomcufcik. E-Larry Cozzi, F-Bill Buck. G-Leland Harmon, I-John McArdle. R-Roland Dortch. T-Dave Crockett.

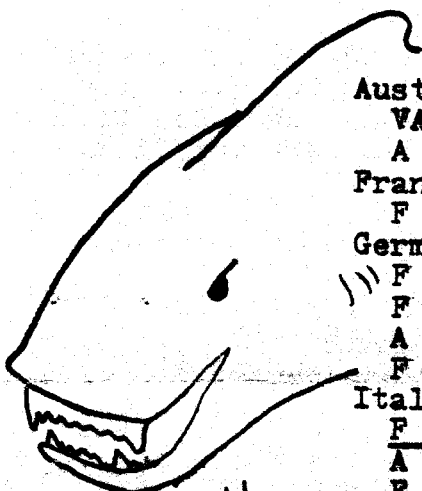

Notice the Turkish players name; it's important.

Mr Crockett began negotiating when he received the game assignments. He says that the Russian player was in the game only as a favor to the Austrian. Crockett decided that he couldn't win the game so he dropped immediately. Further, he says that he has gotten the GM, Craig Reges, to alter the record so that Crockett will not appear as the original player. He also says that Dennis Agosta will also alter the record to show the same thing. What is this! If this is true, I offer the GM and the BNC an opportunity to say why, in their opinion, a player who began negotiation should be erased from the records - and any penalty- just because he couldn't find an ally. All those of you who were the first attacked in a game and played the position out to the end, do you think Dave Crockett has a right to say that he "won all 9 games he was in" when he drops out of any game he doesn't think he can win? I don't. And since Mr. Crockett says that he has compiled this record by "Being careful who I play with", he has, by implication, dropped out of other games he didn't think he could win.

Being a phone player is one thing, but this kind of thing is patently irregular. One doesn't get to pick and choose which ones of his games get rated. Dave, you take your chances like the rest of us. When we sign up for a game, we have to find an ally. If we can't do this, then we have been defeated diplomatically. And that's just as fatal as being beaten tactically. . While I applaud your attempt to win every game you played, it's time you admit you did not succeed. It's nothing to be ashamed of. But trying to falsify your record, and getting others to co-operate is something to be ashamed of. And as to your allegation that Ron Kelly Steve and I were trying to gang up on you-I have no reason to believe Ron Kelly would ally with me. He's allied with you in the game you're in with him. And I suppose it's merely co-incidence that Larry Cozzi seems to be signing up for games only with you....

DEADLINE FOR FALL, 1914 IS 12 NOON, JUNE 9, 1979 CDT

1979AK Good Guy Invitational Pre-1901

Spring, 1901 will be going out to players and analysts in a separate flyer. Next issue Fall, 1901 will be due from the players and in the issue will be Spring, 1901 with comments from the expert analyst, Mark Berch and the novice analyst, Glenn Ledder. Players are requested not to discuss the game with either analyst except in your press. Feel free to aim your press at the analysts. I thank all who volunteered to do novice commentary. I hadn't realized it would be such a popular idea. Glenn volunteered first, so he gets the slot. Players are reminded that the analysts' comments are their opinions and do not necessarily reflect the intentions of the players.

And here are Mark's Pre-commentary comments....

With no moves yet available to be fuddle the commentator, a look at the line-up is in order. This appears to be a somewhat incestuous game.((!)) The West's players(McLendon, Kendter, Sr. & Jones) are also together in 1978IS. McLendon, Kendter, Rohde and Mathias are all in WW III, and McLendon(sure gets around, doesn't he?) and Pyfrom are in Holocaust (A). This is limited to just those games which as of this writing are still in their first 2 game years. Going back even further would produce even more overlaps (e.g. 1978CO). Also - it doesn't cover all the zines, since Everything is not being published currently.

I hasten to add that I haven't the slightest idea whether any of these players allow cross game considerations to influence their play, nor(since I'm in no games with any of them) do I care. Note I said "considerations" --a broader concept than just C.G. alliances and reprisals. (See Steve Hueston's thoughtful look at broader notions of cross game influences in Claw and Fang #101). However, if they do arise, the players will have widely differing opportunities to bring them to bear on this game. ((Thanks, Mark. I'm looking forward to watching you and Glenn watching them.))

DEADLINE FOR WINTER, 1950 IS JUNE 9, 1979 12 NOON CDT

Press: Africa- Former African President for Life, His Excellency Idi Amin Dada, announced from exile that he would not return to Africa until "the United States drinks Canada dry." Meanwhile, the African states are attempting to select a new ruler. A motion to appoint Ian Smith to the post was defeated 20 to 1. Instead it was decided that each African leader would rule the continent for one year before being overthrown. It was felt that this is the form of government most familiar to the African people. The new government of Africa has expelled all foreign advisors, including Russians, Cubans, and the Peace Corps.

Arabia: The United Arab Republic of Israel and Egypt has sent troops to Iran in response to the call for the overthrow of Shah Khomeini. MAZEL TOV ! (More press on page 7)

A FURTHER CORRECTION TO 1976JW

When I applied for the Boardman number I listed Cliff Mann as the original player for Italy, which is what I had been told. Since then I have seen a XeroX of the start of the game in Austerlitz. Ernie Demanelis was both the original player and GM. Cliff Mann is listed as "takes over for Ernie Demanelis as of this move((Spring, 1901)) and has submitted the following orders on the spur of the moment." Dennis Agosta, please take note.
