GENERAL

ISSUE No, 10

Published by DAVALAN Press

May 29, 1984

Spring has sprung up hyr' in Sinkin' Crick Valley (as the locals would say it). Sheep shearing, garden planting, and general work have kept me very busy. Luckily, a cold, rainy weekend just arrived and this will get done in a few short hours.

Page two lists a few of my house rules that have had questions. I suggest that you read this section just to make sure that you don't miss a change. Address changes for summer are there also.

The cost of this issue is 24¢ plus 25¢ postage (if no SASE). You personally now owe me/are owed trade.

Game openings: Diplomacy - Cost: $3.50 + subscription Need 2-3 more
 Gunboat: Cost - $3.00 + Subscription Need 7 more

ALL GAMES ARE DUE AT 10:00 PM ON THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1984.

Editor: David Mc/Crumb Cost: 4¢ per page
 Route 1, Box 109 Mailing: SASE or 25¢

This Issue: Hokie game...F09.....W09.....Due next issue
 Jack Daniels.F03.....W03 and S04
 Numbers.....F04.....W04

Have any of you read Sharyn's book yet? If you want it autographed, just send it to us and she will be happy to do it.

House Rules, etc.

1. Do not call after 10:00 pm. I need to get up in the morning and do the feeding before going to work. An angry GM can cause you problems.
2. The due date refers to the date and time by which I should have your moves in hand. Postmarks do not help. (However, if I should not get a turn typed for any reason, I will take a mailed turn late. Late turns are never accepted by phone.)
3. Payment for turns can be made with uncanceled stamps. Also, please do not let your balance owed go over $5.00.
- *4. A mistake in the turns must be reported to me within two weeks of the postage mark. Otherwise it will stand as is.
5. General Orders should be submitted. Note: Turkey missed this turn in JD with GO's on file.
6. Press is permitted and encouraged. Well written press will be rewarded somehow, I just haven't decided yet. (Any suggestions?)
7. Concessions can be made at any time in a game. To pass, they must have a yes vote from all remaining players. If you fail to vote for any reason, your vote is counted as a 'YES' vote. The same rules apply for this as for missed turns(see # 2 above).

*New Rule.

TURKEY: A Rum-Bud, A Ser S A Rum-Bud, A Bul-Gre, F Aeg-Ion, F Bla H, A Mos H.

DIP: I have GO's from only three countries. These could be very important. As an example, Turkey missed this turn. Because of the very good list of prioritys, he had a good turn.

.....SUPPLY CENTER CHART.....1903.....

AUSTRIA:	Bud	Tri	Vie	Ser	2/3	Removes 1*
ENGLAND:	Edi	Lpl	Lon	Nwy	StP Por	5/5	Constant
FRANCE:	Bre	Mar	Par	StP	Por	3/5	Removes 2

TURKEY:	Ank	Con	Smy	Bul	Rum	Sev	Mos	Ser	Bud	Gre	10/6	Builds 4@

*Austria will be constant if they disband A Bud.

@Turkey can take only three builds.

I think that it will be possible to predict most builds for this winter, so Winter 1903 and Spring 1904 turns are due on the next due date.

*China does not have any open home centers and can not build.

@If England retreats to Borneo, they will have 6 centers. If they disband F Sia, they will have 5 centers, and will need to remove 2 more units

#If England retreats to Borneo, Japan will have only 12 centers and will build three. If England does not retreat to Borneo, Japan will have 13 centers, but can still only take three builds.

$Russia will remove one if A Peking is disbanded.

¢Turkey will be constant if they disband F EMed.

Winter 1904 moves are due with the next turn.

PRESS

-The Turkish dogs have been frozen in fear for the mighty Austrians!

-A minor incident between German & AH border forces was explained by the fact that the Germans were using Turkish road maps. Non-hostility is the order as the patrols exchanged greetings and expressed their regrets for the mistake.

@Japan can only build 2 since a home center is occupied.

#Russia will remove 3 if Turkey retreats to Skg. This also depends on if F Brm is disbanded.

$Turkey will build 4 and have 16 centers if they retreat to Skg.

DIP: The Italian fleet dislodged from the Wind may retreat to the Somali Sea, MidIndian Ocean, or disband. The Russian army dislodged from Burma may retreat to Tibet or disband. The Turkish army dislodged from Siberia may retreat to Alaska, Sinkiang, Turkestan, or disband.

There were some questions about the borders of the Indian Ocean. According to Rod Walker, someone who should know something about it, this is the first time this question has arisen. A hasty ruling was made. After some thought, I disagree with it. (I am sending this to Rod.) If you have any comments, please write to me and I will forward them to Rod. As of now, the official statement will be:

This will be used for next turn. If no new borders have been decided at press time by then, this will be used until the end of the game.

PRESS.....

THE HAGUE, April 2, 1909 (Reuters)

A Religious-bases faction, The Tse' Tse' Brothers, overthrew the too-long entrenched Afrikaans Party last week.

While promising to bring "'modern animism' to the oppressed people of this region", the Brotherhood's spokesman, Maurice d'Mau Mau, pledged that "no retribution" would be taken against the ex-leaders of the now defunct government, "nor their allies abroad".

Mr. d'Mau Mau, educated at the Sorbonne in Paris (PhD., Theoretical Mathematics), indicated that he will go to Paris later this Spring for his 10th class Reunion and, while there, discuss world affairs with other heads of state.

He also hopes to discuss religious issues with the Pope and Caliph, either on his way to Paris, or while returning home after the Reunion.

Leaders of the Dutch Reformed Church here in The Hague expressed the hope that no appropriations of Afrikaans property will take place, so as to assure the success of the annual "Save the Rats" fund drive.

Winter builds are due with the next turn.
