ISSUE No. 17

Published by DAVALAN Press

Jan. 10, 1985

The new Diplomacy game is starting this issue. Italy was the most asked for choice, which is not common. Maybe they all heard that Italy has won every Diplomacy game that I have run.

The new Gunboat game did not start because I only recieved two preference lists. The sooner they are sent, the sooner we can start this game. If I can get yours soon, the first turn could appear in the next issue.

Game Opemings: Gunboat 3.00 + sub two games, send prefence list Civilization 6.00 + sub my favorite ftf game, I would like to try it pbm

.....PRESS.....

11 Dec 1906, Zits, Borneo. Admiral McIntyre announced today that the British Civil War is over. In a meeting with Tories it was realized that this was all a hoax performed by the Germans to infiltrate England.
Admiral McIntyre promptly declared war on Germany and vowed to regain England, where before he left, he said, "I shall return."

The Madras Enquirer - December 24, 1906.

The Second Fleet, stationed in the Western Indian Ocean, is being brought before a military tribunal. The Fleet's drunken actions in leaving Army Group South stranded in the Andaman Sea on rubber life rafts were considered reprehensible. In a related story, the Madras Raj offered public thanks to the Japanese fishing fleet which was kind enough to pick up the rafts and take them to landfall somewhere in Africa. Colonel Rajid was quoted as saying, "Thank Mahatma for those blessed NIP fishermen. Without their kindness, our Buddha's would have rusted for sure!"

-----PRESS-----

Somewhere in the Northern Wastelands of the Americas:

Yeoman: What in the seven hells are we doing up here in Alaska?
Nothing but seals and polar bears up here!

Ensign: We are attacking the Japanese in support of the Australian kangaroos.

Yeoman: How...Why...I don't understand...

Ensign: Those bloody Japs massacred those nice kangaroos and the locals asked for help. So we're going at the Japs by taking the Northern route through Alaska.

Captain: Men, I hate to tell you this, but we haven't quite made it to Alaska, yet. Minister of Intelligence Dorsey ordered us to Alaska, but the PM insisted we wait until our American allies vacated. Well, the bloody Americans couldn't make up their minds until the last minute, so we tried to take a shortcut through the Hudson Bay, and somehow ended up in New Brunswick.

Yeoman: Who's running this country anyway?

Captain: I wish I knew, Yeoman, I wish I knew...

DEEP-SIX GAME

Winter 1900

Diplomacy

NEW GAME STARTS

AUSTRIA:	Mike Smith	Washington, D.C.
ENGLAND:	Chris Mattern	Warrenton, VA
FRANCE:	Keith Evans	Wheaton, MD
GERMANY:	John Crosby	Roswell, GA
ITALY:	Jay Ouzts	Cleveland, MS
RUSSIA:	Pat Conlon	Baton Rouge, LA
TURKEY:	Pedro Prieto	Blacksburg, VA

DIP: This is the first game of Diplomacy that has players far enough apart to not be declared irregular. I do not know all of the players, and am looking forward to the first several moves. Italy was the most asked for country, followed by Germany.. Good Luck to all the players.

The Gunboat Game will start next issue. Please send your preference list with the next turn.
