THE APPALACHIAN GENERAL

THE APPALACHIAN GENERAL (TAG) is a monthly publication for DAVLAN Press. TAG is devoted to the playing and discussion of Diplomacy and other diplomatic games. Articles and reviews on related subjects occasionally appear. There is a quiz on military history every other issue. Subscriptions are 75¢ per issue, or 15 issue for $10.00 (if paid in advance). Game fees are variable. The editor of THE APPALACHIAN GENERAL is: David K. Mc/Crumb, Route 1, Box 109, New Castle, Virginia 24127 Phone: 703-864-6501.

GAME OPENINGS:

Final Conflict III Game Fee - $4.00 need two players
 Bongard, Colbier, Early, Ouzts, Zarse

ALL MOVES ARE DUE BY WEDNESDAY, JANRUARY 22, 1986!
 Phone moves not accepted after Jan. 19, 1986

This issue is late due to the copy store where the issues are done. Some how, they managed to lose it this time. I raised hell about it, and as a result, the copying is free this issue. I will pass this on to you by adding one issue to every person who is a subscriber.

The quality is lower than normal due to this problem. I had some great artwork which was lost. I will try and get it redone for next issue. There is no map for Numbers Game. The Crossword puzzle is held up until next issue. (I will have to redraw it.) Winners were: Mark Frueh, Conrad Minshall, Jay Ouzts, Dave Bongard, Neill Goltz, Rick Dorsey, Robert Sacks, Eric Lanier, and David Filban.

There was a lot of possitive response to my changing the due date to a weekday. General consenses was that it be a Wednesday to allow people to lock over turns on the last weekend and mail them in time to get to me by the due date. I like the early phone due date, and will keep that. This deadline will be the preceding Sunday.

Player of the year is decided, but will be held up until next issue due to above problems.

FOR ALL YOU TECH GRADUATES: WHAT ABOUT THOSE HOKIES!!

ONLY ONE TRADE RECORDED

Assyria traded three cards worth six points of which one is iron to Egypt for three cards worth eight points of which one is oil.

Assyria discards a card (one) to the #2 deck. Now at 6 cards.

Phase 'A' is due with the next issue. I would have done that this issue but I expected more trading since 4 out of 6 had more than 3 cards.

Italy, Thrace, Crete, Assyria, and Babylon move up to the 6th square, while Egypt moves up to the 5th square on the AST CHART.

PRESS:

From Italy to Thrace: You started the conflict by invading my two best farm sites. You can end it only by sending your people back home.

ROMA - The Buddha came down from Fuji, stopped in Fiji, and arrived well-rested at the Vatican to begin his long-awaited visit to Europe.

"I have come to oust the false Bagwhan, who resides in Berlin," he announced. "But I assure you, this will be done peacefully; the Truth will always win out."

Sources close to the Buddha suggested that the Bagwhan can likely be bought off with a few dozen Rolls-Royces. It is known that the car-manufacturing plant in Liverpool has been inspected for cleanliness by a contingent of the Buddha's advance team and that they will be reporting back as to whether the merchandise there will be acceptable.

SUEZ - The long-awaited reopening of the canal was accomplished here today amid much fanfare and excitement. The dredging has been years over-schedule to many setbacks, primarily the inadequacy of the German-manufactured equipment. Still, the pending litigation could not dampen everyone's spirits, as the 150,000 ton Japanese dreadnought WHEEZACUMININ sped through at low-tide. The excursion craft, the well-known stage setting for the popular Japanese sit-com - "Wuv-boat", was completely booked with jet-setters, anxious not to miss this lively event.

A BATTLE OF WITS - #2 (ANSWERS)

1. The gentleman on the front cover of TAG is Thomas 'Stonewall' Jackson.
2. The highest casualties for the Confederacy occurred during the battle of Gettysburg.
3. The first capitol of the Confederacy was Montgomery, Alabama; while the last was Danville, Virginia.
4. 'Company Q' was the sick list.
5. The first commander of the Army of Northern Virginia was Robert E. Lee. Joseph Johnston was in command of these troops first, but they were not known as the Army of Northern Virginia, so named by Lee.
- 6.* The Confederate National Anthem was 'The Bonnie Blue Flag.'
7. Colonel John Mosby was better known as the Grey Ghost.
8. The states of the Confederacy were: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee, and Arkansas.
- 9.* Robert E. Lee's last victory was the battle of Cold Harbor.
10. 'Little Sorrel' was Stonewall Jackson's horse.
- 11.* The first shot fired at Fort Sumter was by Edmund Ruffin. An earlier shot, by Henry Fraley, was fired over the fort to signal that the bombardment was to begin.
12. "All we ask is to be let alone," was said by Jefferson Davis in his first message to the Confederate Congress in March 1861.
13. "Order A.P. Hill to prepare for action! Pass the infantry to the front! No, no, let us pass over the river and rest under the shade of the trees," were the last words of Stonewall Jackson.
14. The 'Virginia' was better known as the 'Merrimack.'
15. Stonewall Jackson received his nickname during the First Battle of Bull Run from Gen. Bernard Bee of South Carolina.

This was by far the best response yet. Mark Frueh was the winner with 10 correct answers. I will be sending him a copy of A Short History of the Civil War by Bruce Catton. I am going to give Rick Dorsey three free issues of TAG for getting 9½ correct answers. A very close contest. Five other people responded. Some of them even got correct answers for questions that the two leaders missed (3&4). *No correct answers.

JOHANNESBURG - Maurice d' Mau Mau, head of the democratically elected government, representing all the people of Africa, addressed the World today on the occasion of the beginning of this year's session of the Trans-African Continental Congress. He spoke to the large issues of our Time, requesting global tolerance for African tribal beliefs, equal economic opportunity in the world market place, and freedom from Japanese/ United States connivance and imperialistic aggression.

"We point out that the Yankees have many problems of their own to solve within their own borders," he said, "and yet they remain present, like vultures over a carcass, ready to swoop down on our bones from their perch in Madagascar. We can only hope that some of our blood brethren have survived the onerous years of occupation." There has been no word from the island for many years as to the fate of its many inhabitants.

"Meanwhile," Mr. d' Mau Mau continued, "our war of liberation for our likewise enslaved brethren in South America, ripped from the breast of their Homeland here in Africa centuries ago, continues. Can there be no end to the ambitions of these rapacious Japanese and their running dog allies from the North?"

He appealed for a Global Truce and promised to take the issue to Tokyo and a Summit Conference with the Emperor.
