

... the ragged traveler crawled up to the great Fazdurf and asked, "What is the meaning of 'time o' great sage." "Time?" the great Fazdurf mused as he pulled up the sleeves on his arms. Exposing one arm with one wristwatch and the other with several, he continued, "Time? ... a man who ~~sees~~ has one wristwatch always knows what time it is; but a man who has two does not." Then as an afterthought he added, "... by the way, wanna buy a watch ..." ((The great Fazdurf was known for his timely responses; for those of you who are not, try reading this ... published by Steve Heinowski, 1630 W28th st., Lorain, Ohio 44052, whoever he may be.))

Corrections: 3104 had one extra C hit, 2201 recieved a hit(s) which should have been directed to 1102, and 3210 had one set of hit not tabulated.

1. The corrections noted should bring the game up to date, and from here onward the composite list is valid from the turn before. The current chart took the corrections into consideration. This system seems to work the best of all the ones tried to date and will be continued for all WS games.

London: Reports from the House of Lords indicate that negotiations with the Italian government, although initially somewhat rocky, have smoothed out and are proceeding with all due dispatch. The ban on imported Italian wine has been lifted, and the smell of spaghetti wafting on the breeze outside Buckingham Palace is further indications of the extent of the thaw in relations. 1. Effective immediately the buy-sell portion of the turn is cancelled and replaced by the optional bidding. Each player may place up to 400 MUs for action in groups of 100, including a minimum bid of 90%, 50%, or "none". If no one purchases the blocks with a minimum bid of "none" the GM will purchase them at 20% of their TV value -- this will have a negative effect upon the current TV. The name of this section will be "player auction".

Press: KB to GC: Your version of the Wizard of Oz was different. Do you know the story about Marht Cole or could you tell us the one about your sisters who sell chickens to Col. Sanders!

NEW GAME SECTION:

1. Diplomacy (waiting list/send no $): Flowers, Osborne, Byrne
2. Monstrosity: filled at this time, no more requests are being taken
3. WS & IW: For now WS has an open opening, so to speak. If you desire a 1:1 game submit a 200 pt DY0; if you would prefer a 2 or more player game, submit a 120 pt. DY0, from the Napoleonic period. Game fee is $1, plus there is a refundable NMR fee of $2 for a total of $3. (The NMR fee is forfeit if you miss two turns in a row or three turns overall). Your ship choices should be in the nationality you desire most, first, the other second. No Spanish selections unless you really are a glutton for punishment.

Take Overs: 1980 KA: Brian Alden took over the position of England
1981 G: Lu Henry took over the position of Russia
1980 KA: Debbie Osborne took over the position of Russia (via resignation)

Standby Requests: none

SE player order: Burnett, Haiber, Mathias, Stephens, Faz, Kelly, Alden, Henry, Caruso

End Game Comments 1978 IN: A request was made to delay this for one issue

OTHER HOBBY STUFF:

1. LATE MAIL: Kathy Byrne and John Caruso have asked it to be known that they are having one devil of a time getting their mail forwarded to their new address; this includes everything from game to the zines they produce. If you are missing anything from them, check in with new address or via phone (same number).

2. BECKER CON: Becker Con has moved to 7860 Sprinkle, Portage, Mich, and Bill provides these simple directions ... everybody meet at Steve's house ((who)) From there take 58 south, turn right on 80-90, turn right on I69, turn left on I94, turn left on Sprinkle Rd., go 4 miles, and if you crossed Center St., back up, you missed it.

3. FAST DIP GAMES: 2-week deadline game opening/Scott Hanson, 701 SEL5 Ave., Minneapolis, Mn. 55414. 3-week deadline game/Dave Marshall, 1547 Maplegrove Road, South Euclid, Ohio 44121.

4. EVERYTHING #47 is out. Everything is the official journal of the Boardman Number Custodian and contains all the records on Dip games. The current issue costs 60¢; prices vary according to size. Inside you can find the data needed to compute things like: How many games is a certain country winning; in this case we find ... Austria won 6, England won 3, France won 4, Germany won 6, Italy won 4, Russia won 2, and Turkey won 5. This by the way is an abrupt change for Russia which has done quite well in the past.

I also recall some time ago I was asked what was an average number players for a game, so using this issues data an average number would seem to be 10 (or 3 replacements per game). A complete listing was: 7(3), 8(3), 9(8), 10(13), 11(6), 12(3), 13(2), 14(2), 16(1), 18(1), 20(2).

5. NEW ZINE The Chamber/Dave Manuel, 10318 Oakgate St., Beliflower, Ca. 90706. Dave is offering 3 non-game fee games of Diplomacy. Subscriptions run @ $4.50 for 10 issues. After the first three games are filled a $5 fee (including $3 in an NMR deposit) will be charged. List of house rules are listed in his "first" issue, so those interested in playing should request this issue. Sample available for a stamp.

6. NEW ZINE Dot Happy/Allen Wells, 550 Memorial Drive #2E3, Cambridge, Ma. 02139. Game fees are $5.00 with a $5.00 refundable NMR deposit. Presently there is one game of Diplomacy open. Subs are on a "cost per" basis; that is you deposit $5.00 and the cost of the zine is withdrawn from your account at whatever the going rate is. The current rate is $0.50/issue. The first issue contained the NMRs and was 16 digest sized pages, using reduced type(print) and maps for the games. Interested parties should contact Allen at the above address.

(The following items are submitted for your information. They are used in the on Mail St. ... sending like anonymous directions ...)

How to Know if You're Growing Older

Place an "x" besides those things that apply to you.

- ☐ Your mind makes contracts your body can't keep
- ☐ Your back goes out more than you do.
- ☐ The best part of the day is over when the alarm clock goes off.
- ☐ You sit in a rocking chair and can't get it going.
- ☐ You turn off the light at night for economic, rather than romantic, reasons.
- ☐ You're startled/shocked/confused when people address you as an "old timer".
- ☐ A fortune teller offers to read your face.
- ☐ You begin to regret all those times you resisted temptation.
- ☐ Almost everything in/on your body seems to hurt, and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work.
- ☐ Your children start bringing home friends you wouldn't mind going out with.
- ☐ You decide to procrastinate, but never get around to it.
- ☐ You begin to look forward to a dull evening.
- ☐ You begin to burn the midnight oil after 9:00PM
- ☐ Your favorite part of any news media is "20 years ago today".
- ☐ You stop looking forward to your next birthday.

((GM: the only way you'll get me to tell my score is if that certain NYer does also!))

Dear Slime, ((F Mazzio)) In answer to John Michalski's question of the pronunciation of "b-y-r-n-e".
It's not "byron" for he was great poet, and she's a lousey one (a dropout from Caruso's School for the Bunnies). It's not "bernie" because everyone knows he's a fake ... even if his wife's name is Bernice. By-Cahlyn. (and) It's not "what", because he invented the proposition, huh? So, it has to be "burn" the girl they march for in the St Patty's Day parades. I'd like to ask, in turn, how John Michalski is pronounced, is it "Jon Michael-ski", John Mitchell-ski, Joan Mickie-ski or "steve Heinowski"?

BS: This 18¢ stamp crap has got to go -- I mean it's cutting into my beer fund. I have my priorities you know!

((don't worry the 18¢ stamp will go ... go to 20¢; however, 18¢ is not the current price, the current price is "B", for you nonbelievers look at the envelope of this zine.))

Dear Slime, ((Suleberger)) Somehow the noble USPS managed to lose the first six pages of my zine so while I did get Faz's jokes, I failed to get anything worthwhile.

((true))

Dear Slime, Tell Toots, BYRNE is pronounced s-e-x-y! Also I congratulate Rick on his ability to see my good taste. You deserve a great big star for finally allowing the players to find the due date without having to read the entire zine! Here it is *. How come you never check any of the boxes on the outside of my zine? Don'y you like me? Signed Ralph Morton ((Obviously another "does RLM read this" attempt. Ha. Ha. You didn't know I have a sample of R Moron's handwriting on file. Enclosed you will find a bill for advertisement just like the last time you tried to run a "Does RLM really read all this crap" add. You gave yourself away in the first sentence ... s-e-x-y??? ... indeed.))

Dear Slime, If you're average, then you're mediocre. If you're mediocre, you should belong to the BSM. How come you don't. Mediocrity yours, "so-so"

((well, for one thing it took me a day to get that "so-so" thing; so "so", I should add that ANYONE who is mediocre should write "Mediocrity" c/o 1163 Robinson Hill Rd., Englewood, NY 13670...
Also ask about mediocrity in gaming which will come to a head on May 16.

(Remember mediocrity is not walking down a long corridor full of people without being noticed; mediocrity is doing it stark naked on a horse and still not be noticed.))

This month's thought: Trying to get player A to believe player B is going to do something is inversely proportional to the amount of truth in your claim.
