

"The Home Office", published by Fred. G. Hyatt, 400 State St, Brooklyn, NY 11217 is devoted to the postal play of a limited number of Diplomacy games, Colonia and other selected variants. The zine is published on the first Saturday of each month, with orders due at 12 NOON on the publishing date, unless otherwise noted.

The sub rate is $10/$2.50. The Game Fee a mere $1.00

GAME OPENINGS: Games 9 and 10 (Diplomacy) are still here, waiting for enough players to get them started. GAME 9 IS FILLED. SEE PAGE 2

Game #12: Phil Cooper has agreed to run Gunboat Colonia #2. Do not, I repeat, DO NOT send a preference list to me, or even tell me you plan to play in the game. Send everything to Phil Cooper, 80 E. Brandis, Staten Island, NY 10308. After all, it is always possible that I may be playing in this one. Once the game begins, the deadlines will be made to coincide with GC#1 and both games will be published in "Ambush", my Gunboat Zine.

FLUG: Lee Kendter, Sr. in "Why Me?" is offering a "blind" Diplomacy game. If you have any interest, contact Lee for details. Lee Kendter, Sr. 4347 Benner St, Philadelphia, Pa 19135. At last count, Lee had 3 signed up already.

"The Voice of Doom" - a new zine put out by Bruce Linsey, 71 Hudson Terrace Apts., Newburgh, NY 12550. Obviously, he has openings in Diplomacy. The zine looks good and is very legible. He put quite a bit of time and effort into Issue #1.

IMPERIAL WAR COLLEGE CORRESPONDENCE COURSE. There is a small argument going on concerning the "best" Spring 1750 move for Spain's Fleet Manila. So, in order to give the debate a public forum (and hopefully to establish the first "feature" in "The Home Office", I invite my readers to join a public debate on the merits of F Mnl-Wpc vs F Mnl-Scs.

I would make one comment on the "best opening move" idea itself. It is my opinion that Military and Political considerations go hand-in-hand in any game. No unit operates in a political vacuum, and often Political Considerations may determine the entire opening movement of a given Power.

There are other "disputed" openings for various units of various Powers, and they will be brought up for discussion later. In the meantime, I hope to hear from you on the Fleet Manila opening, especially from the people who are playing Spain in the various games.

"The Kalahari is the Black Sea of Colonia" -- Gene Frosnitz.

By now you all know that Bob Seargeant has ceased publishing "St. George and the Dragon". This was a very fine zine and will be sorely missed. However, there is a ray of hope on the horizon. Bob tell me there is a chance that he may resume publication sometime in the future. I, for one, certainly hope so!!

1979Bfh Press:

China: International Press reports rumours of military clashes on the northern borders of Austria and Ottoman Empire, between their respective forces and infiltrating Russian advance forces. Chinese comments were "Right on!"

MOSCOW: In a departure from the usual content of his press releases, Tsar Philip said "The destruction of Russia will not be in vain if that event warns the rest of the world of the degree of Chinese meglomania. If China wants war, let it be now! We have grown very weary of his threats". When asked if he was appealing for aid against Peking, the Tsar replied "No. We harbor no false hopes that anyone will believe how dangerous the Yellow Peril truly is, especially in light of Russia's reputation for the quick use of a knife. In any case, we will face China, for it is far preferable to lie on one's feet rather than live on one's knees". On a related front, the Russian State Department announced that, while not subscribing to the Chinese policy of sending copies of correspondence received to other powers, it would make available to the Ottomans, England, and The Netherlands proof, IN CHINA'S OWN HAND of the twin facts that Spain is China's one true ally and that Peking's goal is the domination of ALL Asia.

MOSCOW TO ISTANBUL - John, I give you one guess who China's victim has to be.

VIENNA: The Dutch-Austrian "Peace and Freedom Festival" has drawn large crowds, with many Austrians learning an old Flemish game called "Dungeons & Dragons".

Vienna to St. Pete: The only hot coaters in Austria are employed in our steel mills. Perhaps the new Chinese uniforms are to be made of chain mail?

Several people have inquired about another Scotice Scripti III game, three to be exact. If a few more indicate interest, I'll offer another game, but will withdraw one Diplomacy game in the process. If you're interested let me know.

ISTANBUL: When asked by reporters to comment on the latest dispatch from Vienna, T.T. replied "The Hapsburgs write their press for the ages. The ages 2 to 4". On a totally unrelated front, T.T. accused Vienna of trying to bring painful memories to a "head" in the "brewing" controversy over widespread beer references emanating from Europe. Turning to the French, (thats a turn this way, nor that way), T.T. announced that all future communiques would be handled by the Maritime Ministry since, "there are more fish in Paris than can be found in its bouillabaisse".

LONDON TO VIENNA, ISTANBUL, THE HAGUE: Gentlemen, I suspect a Russian-Chinese Accord. Perhaps their targets lie further West? If their border remains calm, you heard it here first.

PARIS: The ^{erupted} erupted in delerium today as King Philip's forces finally routed Loyalist armies; thus ending the French Civil War. When finally cornered by reporters at 3 A.M. at the temporary Imperial quarters at Fifi's Bordello, the King was asked if he considered the possibility of defeat by the joint Austro-Spanish Alliance.
