

"The Home Office", published by Fred G. Hyatt, 400 State St. Brooklyn, NY 11217 is devoted to the postal play of a limited number of Diplomacy games, Colonia and other selected variants. The zine is published on the first Saturday of each month, with orders due at 12 NOON on the publishing date unless otherwise noted.

The sub rate is 10/$2.50. The Game Fee is now $2.00.

GAME OPENINGS: Gaem #12. Phil Coopers Gunboat Colonia has "a few" spots left open. This is the last game to be offered for awhile.

Notes and Comments: Vernon Scahller has sent me a copy of a COLONIA V "conference map". It is very well done, and highly legible. If you want one, contact Vernon at 207 Garfield Ave. Cherry Hill, NJ 08034.

Quote from a letter from Rod Walker: "Note of Scotice Scripti III. The Boyer small map which you've reproduced, has one area of uncertainty. I have checked the Boyer large map in the NAVB files. You should note to your players: Leitrim borders on Meath. Roscommon does not border on Cashel.

You might note for your players or other interested persons that I can answer inquiries on variants or the holdings of the NAVB, but that all such inquiries must be accompanied by SASE. Copies of the games in file can be provided at cost.

If anyone wants a copy of the large Boyer map, which covers 4 sheets and is large enough to use regular DIPLOMACY pieces on, I can provide a copy for 90¢, postpaid."

Thanks Rod. Also, I am looking for copies of COLONIA II and COLONIA III. I thought I had them, but apparently not. If any of you folks have these versions of COLONIA, I would like to borrow them for reproduction.

IMPERIAL WARCOLLEGE CORRESPONDENT COURSE. Subject: Spanish F Mnl - WPC vs SCS. From JAN LUCKENBILL: I feel as if I am aptly suited to comment on Spain's opening. First, because I'm new to COLONIA and second because I have never played Spain. Although I agree with Fred that political vacuum is non-existent, the question is interesting just for the sake of the bull session.

First, let us view Spain as if she were the only country in the region in question. (oversimplification is often the easiest way to broach a difficult topic) F Manila - South China Sea allows the Fleet 3 possible neutral supply centers in the Fall. F Manila - West Pacific Ocean, on the other hand, gives a choice of 5 possible supply centers. If Spain were the only country in this area, however, the entire question would be meaningless. But obviously West Pacific, on the surface, allows for more tactical flexibility.

From assuming the ideal "best" situation, let us treat the ideal "worst" case. Assume that everyone around the regions moves in a fashion decidedly anti-Spanish: England - F Malaya - Gulf of Siam, China - F Amoy-East China Sea, Portugal - F Australia - Coral Sea, Russia - F Vladivostok - Sea of Japan, Austria - F Hawaii - Polynesia (Fleets only are given consideration). Now, if Spain has moved to South China Sea, she has to outguess England and China. She has only a 1/3 shot at getting a Supply Center (true China might be supporting Russia to Japan, but that's neither here nor there). Now, China will move to Taiwan while England moves either to Cambodia or Borneo. Spain has a 50% chance at getting a supply center.

Assume on the other hand that she had moved her Fleet to West Pacific. Austria would be moving to A) Iwo Jima or B) Guam, Ottoman to Tarawa, Portugal to New Guinea. Again, a 50% shot. With one slight difference: China and Russia each have one fleet keyed on Japan. If Russia and China stand each other out, the Spanish Fleet becomes an amazing bargaining lever in Spring 1751.

Also to be taken into consideration is the fact that South China Sea borders some prize Chinese territory: territory they may not want to give up.

All things considered, West Pacific is better because of the aforementioned facts plus, to get a 50% shot at failure in South China Sea requires only two countries to be allied against Spain, but the 50% Chance (bare minimum) in West Pacific takes "ideally bad" moves by 4 countries (either China or Russia being sufficient). How many times are 4 countries going to band together to prevent one build, at probably cost to themselves?

Thank you, Jan! Your arguments are cogent and to the point. Do I hear any disagreement?? Do I here any comments on other opening moves by other units: like the Dutch A Hague and Ottoman A Jerusalem?(You need not restrict yourselves to Spring 1750 moves, you know. Or even to the movement of one unit).

79Mdl Press: MEATH: While watching the ense from Connacht harvesting the first successful planting of Egyptian seed in Ireland, Red O'Hara announced that advice from ABOVE told him to call the crops "patatoes". The new name was quickly accepted since no one could say the old Egyptian name due to the difficulty of pronouncing hyroglyphics.

DUBLIN: Negotiations have begun with Ulster concerning the sale of the Egyptian patatoo crop. The northern mills wish wo weave a new fabric using Meath's harvest. The first name suggested was linen, but to show it is related to the patatoo, the name agreed on is poplin,

For those of you who might be interested, THE EMPIRE'S REVENGE (First Sequel to STAR WARS) is scheduled to be released in Summer 1989. I, for one, amlooking forward toit!

LEON: Today the PIPKEF (Portuguese Iberian Peace Keeping Expeditionary Force) heard rumours of Franco-Spanish peace. All troops are now celebrating, anxiously hoping that they will be able to go home soon.

LONDON: Scandal erupted at the monthly Ambassadorial Dinner when the Chinese representative refused a delicious portion of venison and insisted on ordering a chicken sandwich - with a LIVE chicken! When King Philip was informed of this incredible lack of taste he remarked "Huh! They'd better remember what side their fortune cookies are buttered on!"

MANCHESTER: Debate, violent at times, between Roundhead members of Parliament (right but repulsive) opposed to King Philip's Theory of Divine Right, and Cavalier (wrong but romantic) supporters of the King erupted today. Roundhead members promised an imminent reply to the King, while Cavalier members promised an imminent solution to the Irish Question.

THE HAGUE: The noted English detective, Sherlock Cooper, arrived in the Dutch capital late last evening as panic spread thru the streets when, found in spray paint on the side of the Ministry of Illiteracy and Bad Taste, was the following ditty: They seek me here, they seek me there/ Those Dutchmen seek me everywhere/ Am I in Lon? Am I in San/ I'm that damnedelusive Englishman!

ANONYMOUS: You know some countries sure can't take a joke. Like the one about the Cambodian ambassador in Vienna. He told the Emperor that he came from such a poor country, he hadn't had a bite in weeks. So the Emperor bit him. But he was lucky, he didn't die of starvation. The rabies got him first. But seriously folks... (You mean it wasn't?-GM)

Anyway, I'm moving. Continue to send your orders to the Staten Island address, and the December issue will have my new address and telephone #. For those calling in moves, I can't guarantee you will catch me in S.I. but you can always try. (After all, it's only a move to Brooklyn.) Anyway, I really enjoyed this turn. The air seemed full of knives. The deadline is Wednesday, November 28, 11PM Eastern Time (kinda short I know, but our glorious leader may change it so check anything from him somewhere else in the 'zine). Remember it takes three(3) of you to get a separation of seasons!
