Current news on Diplomacy game openings, I hadn't planned on any for a while however since I have Peters, Ward, Johnston & Anderson all interested, I guess I will try for one more game. If anyone is interested, or knows someone who is, please write quickly.

WWIIIb is a different matter, I have been planning this one for a while. Currently Marc Peters, James Wall, Chris Trudeau, Michael Vaporis, Dan Marshall, Jeff Zarse, Bruce Gieryk, Ernest Johnson, Tom Johnston, Michael Ward, & Morgan Gurley have all committed. If anyone wants on or off the list, please let me know quickly. WWIIIb is a 15 player, world wide Diplomacy game for those that dont know. The game fee is $5. I will be happy to answer any questions anyone might have reharding the game.

Turkey-Italy: When will you tire of this? You shall never destroy me. The Turkish soldier is insuperable! Allah shall deliver your head into my hands if you fail to repent.

Russia-France: Invoke the spirit of Descartes and do a little math on your position relative to Italy's. Keep thinking about your deal.

Turkey-West: Mmmm!! That French bread must be mighty tasty to have half of the board diving for it. Or are the English just looking for something more drinkable than their ale? If so, that seawater they're occupying ought to do it.

Marc-Ken: As the old axiom goes: If you're not with me then you're against me since my NMR; I'm just a bit slow on the up take (apparently more forgiving than you are too).

Russ-Marc: I don't think he's listening

Moscow-World: It's just too quiet out there. Like the lull before the storm, like the lack of letters before the kill. I feel the possibility of enemy attacks on the good freedom loving Russian peasants. Hence I have struck out in many directions to ward off these offensives (So dont take it wrong).

Moscow-Budapest: To the end!!

Austria: What the hell is a Gyphon? Sounds like something from Titan!

I guess all I can do here is to wish all of you the best of luck in this thing. Once again, it will be run on a double deadline basis with all spring and fall moves due on the 20th of the month and all summer and winter adjustments due on the first of the following month.
James Wall & David Anderson still owe gamefees for this thing.
