Well, here we are again. I'm a bit disapointed in some of you folks out there, as I recieved very few new subs this issue. What's wrong, did I offend somebody ? Oh, well, I'll keep putting this out in spite of what some of you may think ! On to the serious bussiness.

First, game #2 has six players signed up. I had hoped to fill this by this issue, but it was not to be. If a seventh comes to me in in the next couple of days, I'll send a seperate sheet to the players.

YOUNGSTOWN: A couple more signed up for this, but I was surprised how many asked what it was! I thought most of you knew about this one. Anyway, for those of you who are unaware, this is a ten player variant that adds asia to the regular board, and the new powers are Japan, China, and India. It is quite interesting, and I find it a good change of pace from regular dippy. If you would like to see the map and rules, I have Xerox copies available for 50¢. If you decide to join the game, you can deduct this from the gamefee.

SPACE STATION ULTRA: In this issue you will find a variant that I designed. I'm not happy with the way that the Xerox copies of the maps came out, but I think you will find them legible. I paid 8¢ each for the darn things! The reson that I'm enclosing this is that I would really like to see how a game of it goes. I've fooled with it myself, and I think it is going to be tough to win! Anyone who subs to this zine can play for free. If there is enough interest, I may run more than one game. (My ~~XXX~~ son said I won't fill one game) So , why not give it a try? See page three for more of my ramblings.

A question was asked about the houserules. I am now running this under Why Me houserules. Also, you do not have to pay any fees for this, I have made arrangements with K Russell for everything.

DEADLINE FOR FALL 1906 IS JUNE 30th. Phone deadline is the night before.

1977 FA had no response! I did everything that I could to save this game, but I guess it is now officially terminated.

Houserule addition: If no centers change hands within 3 game years, I will consider that game a draw between all surviving players.

I have also decided that I reserve the right to edit all press if I feel it is not in good taste. (profane, racial, etc.)

I NEED STANDBIES! I NEED STANDBIES! I NEED STANDBYS! I'm really in a bit of trouble in this department. I would really appreciate it if a few of you would volunteer for this.

PENN CON 78 I'm still plugging this, but since it will be over by next issue, this is the last time.

As an east coaster, I feel that Penn-Con is the only chance for some of us to get together this year. With Origins in Detroit, And Dip-Con in L.A., Many of us wont get to these. So, all of you that are not to far from Phila., why not come on down? It is not a small con, and I really think that you will really enjoy yourselves. See you there?

Write to Strategy & Fantasy World, Valley Forge Shopping Center, King of Prussia Pa. 19406 for Pre Registration forms. Include an SSAE.

As all of you know by now the U.S.P.S. has raised thier rates, but did you know that they changed the minimum size requirements? The new size minimum is 3½ x 5 . That means that those of you who use 3 x 5 cards as postcards can NOT do this any longer. I personally use the next size index cards for postcards as I can write more on them anyway.

////////////////////

Fellow publishers, have you had any trouble getting Boardman numbers lately? I've written Cal White twice, and I haven't recieved anything at all from him. Am I doing something wrong?
