Publisher: Lee A. Kendter, 4347 Benner St., Phila., PA 19135

Game openings: None at the present time

TELEPHONE ORDERS:.... For some reason a lot more of you are calling in your orders. I have told all of you in the past that this is OK but not recommended. Now I'm going to have to get a little tougher. Phone orders are accepted ONLY between 9:30 and 10:30 in the evening. My wife was interrupted 6 times on Tues nite to take phone orders. A few of them were while she was trying to cook dinner. I am not home untill after 9:00 most of the time, and I would prefer that you give your orders to ME. Please cooperate in this matter. Thanks....

PLUGS

BLACK FROG is the name of a 'zine just started by Jack Masters. Jack promises well run games and prompt publication. (something like me, right Jack ?). It is done in a booklet format (drat, I wish I could afford to do that !). I usually don't plug a 'zine that has not yet established itself, but Jack is a reliable player and hopefully will be a reliable publisher. Write for a sample at: 25711 North Vista Fairways Drive, Valencia, California 91355. You'll like it !

MARK BERCH has just put out a special issue of DIPLOMACY DIGEST. It is # 34-35-36. The contents are rather unique and Mark calls it the "Lexicon" of Diplomacy. A lot of hobby terms, openings, and many obscure facts are contained in this issue. You can obtain a copy for $1.25 or you can sub to DD for $3.00 (10 issues) and ask to have your sub start with the special issue(s). DD does not run games but is a hobby source of a lot of reading material (articles, discussions, etc). Write Mark at: 492 Naylor Place, Alexandria, VA. 22304

ANDY LISCHETT has just put out the most novel issue of a dipzine I have ever seen ! In fact, I can't really do it justice trying to describe it !! Send adny a couple of stamps and ask him how you can obtain a copy of CHEESECAKE # 14. Andy Lischett, 3025 N. Davlin Ct., Chocago, Ill. 60618

WHEW....what a drag it is trying to get this issue out before I go to ORIGINS. It's HOT here in Philly today (90 degrees) and it is so humid it's obscene ! Just my luck that my air conditioner is broken at this time !! I have not used my normal format to number the games. This was done to save me as much time as possible. I also hope that I have not made any serious errors, but if I did, kindly report them to me AT ONCE. I just don't have the time to proofread the games as carefully as I usually do. Bear with me folks .

Some of you have asked me about EVERYTHING, my Boardman number zine. Well, I have an issue $\frac{1}{2}$ finished and I hope to start working on it again after origins. The issue will be mailed sometime in July. OK?

ARTICLES are still needed for this 'zine !!! I have received ZERO in the past two months. (except for a wargaming article, which I am not sure I'll use). Come on, write me something !!!

Off to ORIGINS I go.

Austrian government in exile-I hope you turkeys out there are ready to do something about the MOTHER because she has just about signed me off already. Ed, this treatment should be more to your liking than the one I gave you in 790. Good bye, all and hope to see you under different circumstances in the future, especially you, Jack.

London: Once more England complains to GM. You didn't give me credit for gaining algeria in 1901. That gives me seven SC and four builds in 1901. I have a question. (I've never played this variant untill now). Can my army in the Irish sea convey my fleet from Clyde to Bur? ((only when the deadline falls on the sixth friday of the month)).

The name of his Variant is IMMINENT and his map is very well done. As indicated in the contest rules, the winner receives a one years sub to Why Me.

Some kind of Honorable mention should go to Jack masters and his TAR PIT DIPLOMACY. All the spaces are named after people in the hobby and it requires a mere 53 players ! ((I found it hilarious, LK)).

Other entries received were OCEAN LAKE DIPLOMACY by Jack Brawner, and MARSQUEST by Wayne Callahan.
