"SURE HOPE WE AREN'T PICKED UP FOR THIS NOISY MUFFLER!"

FLETCHER '67

Fall 1905

1966KN

(Belgrad) Crown Prinz Engen begs the forgiveness of his Turkish allies for his lack of correspondence: the change of the Imperial Mailing Address has caused communications problems.

"I have ordered my units as best possible without consulting my good Turkish allies," he said drunkenly, "but I hope that our intentions will coincide. If not, there can be some adjustments made on the next move. North Africa is like a summer festival."

(Constantinople) Jim Danny confirmed the news - (with Jim, if its fit to print; its not news) - after a thorough search he confirmed the name of the Int. Esq. Tybalt Hyboldt.

Princess Telephone comforted the Prinz with a pizza (concrete) when she heard of his other marriages.

Rumours have it that the Crown Prinz has been visited by a mysterious beggar called "Reinsellini" whole stole some silver and some strawberry tarts.
