TURKEY TO LIBERATE GREECE!

(Constantinople) The Turkish Liberation Forces now stationed in Bulgaria are herewith ordered to free the Greek peoples from the tyrranny of the Hungarian puppet on the throne. Sympathy for the plight of the poor Greeks was voiced from official sources, "The dedication of the Turkish people to the ideals of freedom and liberty will cause them to become partners with the Greeks in their quest of independence and individual freedom."

(London: AP) The Admiralty has taken over the government and has declared Martial Law. The Admiralty is destroying all records and burning all supply depots near London. In a fiery speech, the King declared war on Russia, Germany, Italy, Turkey, and Austria-Hungary.

The people of London are taking the crisis in stride. Merchants are listing prices in marks as well as pounds, anticipating a German landing.

(Wales: AP) The entire British government is being relocated in Wales. The ex-Minister of Defense was sentenced to five years hard labor for incompetence. As he was led out of court, he was quoted as saying, "'Twill be the safest place, as I won't have to dodge German bullets -- besides, I'll make a fortune in the Black Market." Several admirals have sent letters to the ex-Minister suggesting a pardon could be arranged in exchange for stock in the ex-Minister's newly formed company, "Black Market Inc."

(Nilerø, Norway AP) The Norwegian underground has pledged to assist England retake Norway. Terrorist groups are beginning to damage Russian morale and supply lines.

(Berlin - German Information Office) The German Republic, shocked by the treachery and perfidy of the so-called "Turkish Republic" and saddened by, as is all Europe, the ruthless suppression of Nationalist Patriotic elements among its subject peoples of Bulgaria and Rumania has withdrawn its recognition of Talaat Bey.

Sultan Abd Al Amid's son who had fled to Armenia has arrived in Berlin to set up a government in exile. Sultan Abd Al Pasha has been recognized by the German Republic.

Military operations to restore the Sultan to the Throne that is rightfully his will consist only of supplying the guerilla forces of Armenia untill the threat to the Fatherland from England is defeated.

All assets of Turkey have been frozen and allocated to the Sultan Abd Al Pasha.

In retaliation for the English attack upon the German fishing fleet in the Helgoland Bight, the German Fleet has been ordered to seek out and destroy all English commerce in the North Sea. The Fleet is under orders to proceed to an unknown destination, but informed speculation is that the English capital may yet know the might of the German Republic.

(Holland INS) Queen Wilhelma welcomed the German forces dispatched to Holland to prevent another sneak attack such as that of England last year. The Queen pledged full support in the German campaign to restore peace in the low countries and announced that the Netherlands army would take the field with Germany.

_____ John W. Smythe, Jr.

This brings one fleet to Norway, and the other if it proves essential; it allows for an army convoy to any possible place; it protects London from the French; and it sets the North Sea fleet up as a balance of power unit between the French and Germans in negotiating for Belgium. And it doesn't antagonise a soul. Except for SPECIFIC UNORTHODOX ALTERNATIVE MANOEUVRES called for by a war situation or similar happening, this seems the only sensible move - wrapping up the advantages neatly without including the possible detriments.

Of course the above entries were edited and poorly typed, but some of the misspelling was theirs instead of mine.

There were many other good entries too. Too many to list.
