Fall 1901

1966KL

(Rome) After a battle off the coast of Utica, the Roman Fleet rowed into Tunis today, breaking the month long seige of Tunis by the Parthians. The inactivity of the previous occupant of the Holy City was largely responsible for his overthrow. Reagani, determined not to make the same mistake has authorized a punitive expedition against Aradus in retaliation for the raid. Aradus lies in the Parthian Puppet State of Syria.

GENTLEMEN: In MY interpretation of the rules, an order given for a unit without a designation of whether it is an army or a fleet must mean either a Submarine or a Dirigible Airfleet. Since we have neither of these in this game; you had better indicate which they are.

(Rome) Reinselini declared today that Italy will continue its peaceful pursuits of a little farming land if Austria-Hungary and Turkey will be kind and generous enough to leave the Ionian Sea empty of warships.

(Palace of the Golden Horn) The Italian perfidy in the attacking of Turkish territory will be punished. Although this may prove to be a long and costly war, Turkey will be avenged! A state of War now exists between the dominions of the Faithful and His Majesty of Italy.

(Rome) In response to the unreasonable attempts by Austria-Hungary to expand their military potential ((by asking for their home supply centers back - no doubt)), the Italian peoples have authorized their government to attack the military units ((Strangely enough, no military units were attacked, just supply centers - see next page)) of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Accordingly, the Italian armies have invaded Northern Austria, Hungary, and Bulgaria. The spokesman for the Italian government pleaded with the press, "do not interpret the Fall campaigns of my government to mean that we are interested in building an empire. All we are interested in, is reinstating the political boundaries of the Roman Republic circa 250 A.D."

The continued provocations by German infantry units in France have caused the Italian Chiefs of Staff to take proper defensive measures to ensure protection of Italian interests in the West. Should the German Empire continue these unwarranted attacks on Italian positions; the armies of the Republic will take appropriate counter-action.

Let it not be said that the Germans were not forewarned.
