(Vienna) Crown Prince Hapsburg has ordered all units to the outermost borders of the Empire to prepare for any eventuality. However, no troops are outside our borders except for Sevastopol where they are stationed at the request of the Governor to prevent civil collapse in the absence of effective Russian Government, and Venice where the northern defenses of Italy have been assumed per Italian request. Rumours in the Capitol speak of war with Germany if the German forces are not removed from Bohemia. Only the notorious instability of the previous German government has avoided war thus far. Some clash with France is expected in northern Italy. With the dramatic turn of fortunes in the last year or so; the Austrian people face these threats with confidence.

RUMOURS OF WAR

(Paris) With the failure of the Austrians to apologize for their attack on Munich and their failure to explain the violations of the Austro-French treaty of friendship; John II went before Parliament to ask for a Declaration of War against Austria-Hungary. The presence of a regiment of troops in Paris seemed to have a salutary effect, as the deputies voted John II absolute authority for the duration, as well as his Declaration of War by 212-99. The vote was expected to be much closer as a non government resolution urging war had received only 152 votes just last month. John II immediately announced that while tactical considerations demanded that France remain on the defensive for the present, at least one more theatre would commence offensive operations at once. No major reshuffling of command is anticipated.

(Rome) The Six-Penicus Government, against its wishes, has been forced to declare war against the barbarian empire of Ward the Terrible. The spokesman for the government stated that the building of additional naval units by the Odius Oedipus could be interpreted only as an act of aggression. Therefore, the naval squadrons of Admiral Aqua have been ordered to secure the Iberian Peninsula. Also the 5th Armada has been ordered to reinforce the Admiral's Command.

(Turino) In conjunction with the attack on the Odius Oedipus' positions in Spain, the Legions of Magnus Soldat commenced the invasion of Transalpine Gaul. It is expected that the important Military Depot of Marseilles will be taken by storm in the early fall.

(Rome) The Six-Penicus Government was questioned about their relations with the barbarian Viennesse. The Majority Leader's response was, "We aren't at war with the Viennesse, but neither are we at peace. The only way that I can explain our relations with them is to say that we are participating in Peaceful Aggression with the Viennesse."

Quite often we cannot resist making comments on press releases. And usually we make them with either John Boardman's or John Smythe's carefully thought out political statements. This is truly a bad thing. The Games-Master should always keep aloof from the game. Shame, Shame on me. We apologize for making snide remarks, for example, the recent comments aimed at good 'ol John Smythe who never backstabs _ _ _ _ Well, _ Would you believe seldom??

(Rome) Count Garlic 'n Pizza was heard to say that the Italian Government was very upset over the recent articles in the "neutralist pamphlet" Wild 'n Wooly. ((thats us)) The good Count hinted that the Imperial Government would take steps to insure the cessation of the articles. ((Like Sawiczewski, he is declaring war on us. We'll have to Garrison St. Paul, as well as Denver and Portland.))

(Torino) The government has initiated an ambitious program of strengthening the military garrisons along the Swiss border. ((Swiss border?? I thought I was in the North woods! I'm lost again!)) Though no reasons were given for the buildup, experts believe that the recent anti-Italian articles printed in the Geneva fanrag "Wild 'n Wooly" have caused our relations with the Swiss Government to deteriorate. Though war is not expected, I cannot but worry about what will become of the situation.

(Vienna) The Armies East have commenced a major offensive to clear the enemy forces from the Polish provinces of Galicia. Even as Italian infantry advance into the province, rumours circulate that Envoys have been sent to Russia to attempt to arrange a Treaty with the Tsar. Should the rumours prove to be true, the fate of the homeless Austrian armies is sealed. For they cannot hope to survive an attack by combined Italian and Russian armies.

Incidentally, the first player with 18 supply centers will be declared the winner, rather than a majority of units on the board.

NORSTRILLIA, MESKLIN, ASGARD, & THE WERELD SCHEMERING WEEKLY WOMBAT will be available from the publishers of Wild 'n Woolly! These are Diplomacy publications of Dan Alderson, a scientist at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena. A subscription to all of these publications for six months will be only one dollar. Some back issues are available as well. Back issues are 25¢ each.

The WESTERCON will be held in San Diego on the weekend of July 4, 1966. We plan to attend this, always lively, West Coast convention. How about you? There will probably be a Diplomacy game and I will be in it this time.

The NORWESCON will be held in Spokane on New Years' Eve, Dec. 31, 1966. We plan to attend this one too, although a Diplomacy game isn't likely.

The WORLDCON will be held in Cleveland on the Labor Day weekend. We hope to attend that one too. There'll be a game and possibly a brawl as well.

This is Wild 'n Woolly, a Diplomacy magazine published every 9 days with a 5 day lapse over Christmas. Subscriptions are $1.00 for ten issues. Your subscription dollar can be applied to any game fees that you pay within 30 days. Back issues are 50¢ each.

IF YOU WISH TO PLAY: Please write to us, stating your choice of countries and game speeds so that your name can be entered onto the priority lists. Whenever we put a game list together, we publish a tentative game list. If someone drops out, we put someone else on the list. The Final Game List is published 2 issues after the Tentative Game List. The Spring 1901 move will appear in the issue following the Final Game List. In the Regular Speed game, which is the most popular, we publish five issues for each game year.

You have your choice of payment plans:

Plan A;	one game	$5.00
	two games	$6.00
	three games	$7.00
	four games	$8.00
	five games	$9.00
	six games	$10.00

Please note that you will not be started in more than one game at a time. Each time you go onto a game list, your name drops down to the bottom of the general priority list.

Plan B; No entrance fee but one dollar must be paid on or before the Spring move of each even numbered game year until you resign. In the regular speed game; that will be one dollar each 90 days.

Game fees under plan A must be paid with the Spring 1901 move of the first game or you will be automatically under plan B in which all games are paid for separately.

REPLACEMENT PLAYERS: The usual fee for a replacement player is $1.00 but this is not always true. Replacement players are subject to approval by the Gamesmaster and the players.

Someone asked me how many games I was in. I have no idea. I don't try to count 'em, I just play 'em. I don't even try to win. I enjoy myself very thoroughly with Deadly Attacks, Crafty Maneouvres, and Honourable Holds.

McCallum, Smythe, Reinsel, and I seem to have a contest going to see who can play in the most games. Smythe seems to have a contest with himself to see if he can win more than half of the games he's in. He has no competition there. I've lost 99 out of 100 games.

Would you gentlemen with the new magazines please send me your latest decisions on game fees and subscription rates so that I can publish a list in the next issue?
