I think we're every bit
as believable as Bill Cosby and Robert Culp.

(Kiel) In a reply to a query from the Austrians, "What the framinnell are you doing in Galicia?"; the Kaiser stated that he is, " attempting to investigate the so called mild Mediterranean climate and gain information concerning some pretenders to the Master Race."

FRANCIS RUSSEL POURNELLE was BORN on March 2, 1966!! He immediately buckled on a Roman short-sword and asked for a drink!

I just read the booklet, "Rules for Diplomacy", copyright 1961, for the very first time. (((And that man has nine games in his hands!! - John Boardman))) (((We suspected as much - John Smythe)))

I had one brief glance at the rulebook in late 1963. I noticed the rule on cutting support. It happened that the players in the current LASFAFS game had agreed to a different ruling at the last meeting. The resulting furor not only led to the resignation of one of the players but to the resignation of the gamesmaster as well! Ever afterwards, when I asked about seeing someone's rulebook, it was "mislaid". This made me so mad (((("mad" is the appropriate word - Jim Harmon))) that I'm now in 20 games and hoping to publish 100.

Does anyone want to play out the sample game given in the back of the book?

Wild 'n Woolly has gone to legal size. Diplomacy games are usually long, anyway. However, we have two complaints already! Any more?

We didn't intend to cause people to buy new filing cabinets. This size will not require us to pay double postage as soon as the regular size (by three or more months). It will also save us money in publishing fees to Atro - City press which are per stencil. (Bruce Pelz would ask for bribes at this point.)

We are out of artwork and will trade subscriptions for good artwork. Please don't send bundles of mimeoed or dittoed, etc. artwork already reproduced, with postage due, however. Just send us the drawings or stencils.

Jim ordered a Hexagraph from a stationer's and he advises me to do the same. It would save me a great deal of money but I hesitate to deprive Wild 'n Woolly of its new-found quality.

He plans to pub. Superdiplomacy type games with probably "The Kingdom of Norway and Sweden" as a major power.

A SPECIAL GAME FOR BEGINNERS:

We will publish one game for those who have never played Diplomacy before. The players in this game will get a new game which will be FREE. This new game can be delayed for as long as they like. If you have never played in any published game before (and you are not well known for your experience - like Kim Pattee or Dave Hulan) write to us, stating your choice of country. This game will be at regular speed.

GAME SPEEDS

Regular Games of Tigers

One game year per five issues. We publish every nine days.

Slow Games of Dragons

One game year per ten issues

Fast Games of Wolves

One move per issue, complete with retreats and build orders. Think its easy?

BLITZKRIEG Games of Devils

One Game year (two moves, complete with retreats and build orders) per issue. There is still a $20 prize for the first player in a Blitzkrieg game to take all 34 supply cent.

You always have your choice of country. We do the best we can for the geographical distribution of the players. Write now, to get your name on a priority list for your choices of Great Powers to play.

WATCH THESE PAGES FOR NEWS OF TOMAHAWK AND OF ARMAGGEDON:

Those of you who don't have your own Diplomacy boards may probably want to order them direct from: Games Research, Inc.
P.O. Box 18C
Boston 18
Massachussetts

Send them $8 or more, depending upon how you wish the game shipped to you. If you cannot afford a game board right now, you can write to me for a conference map.

So ends the bloody business of the day.
