Fall 1907 Retreats

1965KQ

We couldn't find the moves from France and Russia for Fall 1907. We are sure they were sent to us . . . but we never saw them. We have, of course, taken steps to insure that we receive (most of) our mail. The local Berkeley Post Office recently returned to us an envelope we sent to the Telephone Co. as "unlocatable" simply because of a miswritten digit on the Box no. . . . .

Fall 1912 Build Orders

1965KQ

(London) The Skagerrak will be avoided by English ships, as it has been heavily mined by Russian fleets. The Admiralty has been unable to glean maps from the Russians and is facing a great crisis.

(Warszawa) Andrzej Sawiczewski of the Polish Republic today announced the refitting of that long-lost Polish fleet, supposedly annihilated by the late Turkish despot Talaat Bey in 1902.

"Where has all the time gone?" mused Sawiczewski, gloating over a snapshot of the late Hornswogale P. Schmidt-Nagy hanging . . . .

Is A-H really gone? Better check your W 'n W #1 again, Conrad.

We are unhappy to report that Capt. Walker has run short on ditto paper or something and EREWHON may be thin or delayed for a while.

You all want to keep track of our first girl-player (I think);
