(Belgrad) In a special interview in the Int. Enq., Krown Prins Engen cofirmed the reports of his affection towards several foreign nationals. He said that he was proud to have numbered the Turkish Ambassador's daughter, Shalimar, among his many royal consorts. "Her tragic and unfortunate death caused me great greif. In the Fall of 1902, she undertook a state visit to the Kingdom of Serbia, an Austro-Hungarian protectorate under the terms of the Pact of May 4th. Her coach was touring villages near the Albanian border, and thereby found itself directly in the path of the invading Turkish army. The Royal Coach took a direct artillery hit. I was told that when she died, she lifted up her soft brown eyes to heaven and said; "I wonder if it pays off in the long run, to be the first to double cross a green Diplomat?" Very sail. Very tragic.." continued the Krown Prinzs brushing a tear from his mustache. "But perhaps my other consort, Natashya, will comfort me in my grief," he said, brightening.

The Krown Prinx also revealed that he had sent a special agent, "W.R." to confer with the Sultana of Turkey on the Bulgarian question. Also, he is glad to see his English allies on the move, and hopes that they will annex France with

It is time to put out the 2nd issue of XEWO but I still don't have enough players. I may have to make the playing space smaller. Incidentally, I will forward mail between players until they trust each other enough to give their names and addresses. Also, I'm working on a rule to allow a Scoutship to obtain some information about a planet's defenses. Game fee $2, Anyone may play.

Must rush off to the Westeroon now, to play fun games with Barney Bernard, Elmer Purche, C Burbee, Lee Jay, Gail, Hilds, stc.

The game's top player (2nd to top?). Derek Nelson is contomplating a Diplomacy sine of his own. Will somebody please talk him out of it? He'll never pass John on the ratings if he ties himself up with publishing. Write: Derek Nelson
