Yup. This-here is WILE 'N' WORRY, pardner, with two rootin', tootin', hard-tidin', hard-shootin' games we done rustled from WILD 'N' WOOLY, on accounta that spread is gone up to the big GRI in the Sky. Subscriptions (to other than players, who get this abysmal thing free) are 10/$1; back issues are 5¢ each. This is Pandemonium Publication #217, edited and published by Rod Walker, 5058 Hawley Blvd., San Diego CA 92116; phone (714) 282-1921; member, NFFFGBDD and IFWDS. I guess you all know what they are. PLEASE NOTE THE NEW HOUSE-HULES, ENCLOSED WITH THIS ISSUE.

I now, additionally, have permission to call John McCallum collect for moves.

KIEL, FRANCE: "Wir fahren nach 1'Angleterre..."

PARIS: In this alternate time-track, Jaures shot first. He is alive and well in Versailles and has just reestablished the monarchy as King Jean III. It will not be the first time a hero of the people has succumbed to the lure of power.

SAN DIEGO: That's what they all do.
