THE BAVARIAN ILLUMINUTTI

WILE 'N' WORRY

Yeah...here it is again, just when you thought that maybe you had escaped. Alas, this is WILE 'N' WORRY, the ghost of WILD 'N' WOOLY, which has apparently not been brought forth from the grave...yet. Game fee is $4 ($3 if you are a member of the NFFFGBDD or the IFW). Subscriptions are 10/$1. Back issues are 5¢ each in lots of 2 or more and 3¢ each in lots of 5 or more (available: 1-30). Stand-by positions are available under the provisions of House-Rule 13. This is Pandemonium Publication #456, edited and published by Rod Walker, 4719 Felton St., San Diego CA 92116; telephone, (714) 282-1921; member, NFFFGBDD, IFW, PDRC.

"Yeah, I know he didn't publish, but don't you think one nail is enough to crucify a caterpillar?"

THE FUR FLIES

1. RE: HOUSE-RULES: HR 10, under the Lakofka System, should read, "...a stamped self-addressed postcard..."
2. FAKIR is a wicked parody of WAZIR which some evil person has just published. I got some extra copies from this person, and you may buy them from me at 10¢ a throw.
3. INTERESTED IN VARIANTS? Seriously interested? Ask me about Fred Davis' BUSHWACKER.

1970AE -- IT'S OLD HOME WEEK!

Winter 1905: My thanks to Don Horton and Andrew Phillips for sending stand-by orders. Pete Weber wishes to continue play, and I have now heard from George Inzer, who also wishes to keep his position. LA GUERRE's LRT is now reconstituted with all of the original four survivors. Bob Wilson's ZIP is 92706, by the way.

Speaking of Bob Wilson. Thomas Luke Wilson was the player of record for Austria in this game. Somewhere in 1901 or 1902 he resigned or was dropped. Does anyone remember what...and when? There is no indication I can find in the printed issues of LA GUERRE. Any information on when and how Tom was replaced by Bob would be very much appreciated.

In the lists of units below, builds are marked *. Oh, yes--in submitting orders, any clearly differentiated abbreviations, not necessarily mine, are acceptable. You can use Buddy's abbreviations (although NSe is not really unambiguous), or mine, or whatever. The "Nor" abbreviations I use, however, are those in the 1971 Rulebook.

SPRING 1906 ORDERS are due on Thursday, 2 March 1972. I have orders on hand for France and Italy.

VIENNA: To whom it may concern: Your most cordial message was received at the Winter Palace. Keep your shirt on.

PARIS: While the First Consul Inzer appreciates the gallant efforts of Vice-Consul Phillips during M. Inzer's recent temporary insanity, M. Inzer regrets all the gains made at the expense of his allies and the respite M. Phillips gave his enemies. But c'est la guerre; the century is yet young.

MOSCOW (8 January 1906): Tsar Nicholas the Limper (so named because one leg is six inches shorter than the other) has ordered all remaining Russian units to surrender unconditionally. However, it may be recalled that the Tsar was exiled over a year ago.

BARAD FELTON: Since then he has taken the cure, and now the other leg is six inches longer than the one leg.

WINTER 1903 ADJUSTMENTS are due on Thursday, 2 March 1972. They may of course be made conditional upon the directions of the retreats.

Well, that seems to be it. Next time we will see the thrilling beginning of 1972D.

Game W-3 is beginning to take shape. Registered are: Buddy Tretick, Fred Winter, Duane Linstrom, Elliot Lipson, and probably Len Lakofka (no fee yet, Len). We should be under way this month. I have had two specific inquiries about game openings lately, not counting the usual flood of novice players from the GRI flyer.

Note to John McCallum: We just had an elimination in 1969BH. Didn't somebody win something?
