

I'm sorry to report that I'm still working on the new House Rules. I have finished the rough draft, and it is now being looked over by John Beshara and Rod Walker. I should have the finished product by next month. I don't think there is any need for house rules for the first turn of the game, but just in case, we'll use our old ones.

If any of you people playing in the tourney or game 1 want to enter game 2 or YV1, you can get a discount. ~~THA~~

YV 1 should start next month, with a little luck. Game 2 should start either next month or in October.

The Tournament

Here is the roster for the now 3 game tourney:

Game	Austria-Hungary	England	France	Germany	Italy	Russia	Turkey
T 1	Wilson	Rubin	Eller	Goss	Fong	Bird	Burke
T 2	Goss	Wilson	Bird	Eller	Burke	Rubin	Fong
T 3	Bird	Goss	Fong	Wilson	Rubin	Burke	Eller

Charles Reinsel resigned from the Tournament as he was displeased with my game mastering and publishing. Ben Goss has taken his place.

I have yet to come up with the point system to determine the winner of the tourney. As with the HR'S, that should come next month, but it might not.

Here are the addresses of you people:

Mark Bird, Rd. # 1, Hinesburg, Vt. 05461.
 Doug Burke, Apt. C 2, 4003 Roland Ave., Baltimore, Md., 21211.
 Ben Eller, 31 Queensbury St., Apt. 4, Boston, Mass., 02215.
 Larry Fong, 704 Alice St., Oakland, Ca., 94607.
 Ben Goss, 439 Balboa Way, Medesto, Ca., 95350.
 Paul Rubin, 41 Herbert Ave., Massapequa Park, N.Y., 11762.
 Tom Wilson, 7556 Apperson St., Tujunga, Ca., 91042.

The countries were chosen in the following manner: First I put down a number-seven of them, one for each player. I then gave each number what I considered to be 3 countries which together were nearly equal with any other numbers three. I also looked to see that no player could feasibly ally with another player in all these games. I didn't accomplish all of this completely, but for the most part the country selections are equal, and there are very few places where one can ally with another in 3 games immediately. After I did all this, I picked names out of a hat to see who got each number.

All moves are due on August 30, 1971. That is a Monday.

Game 1 is now filled! Here is the roster:

All moves are due on August 30, 1971, which is a Monday.

That is about it for this month. Please do be on time, and try to get in some press releases. Till next month, Good bye.

Dear Rod,

Got Ewenor's today. Keep commenting on the DA. I agree with you and many points, and have written about it. Good bye, keep it up.

Sincerely,
 John
